Nameoki Board Oks Engineer Contract For Sewer Project

An engineering contract for design of a sanitary sewer system for Nameoki township was approved last night by the town board of auditors.
The firm of H. W. Lochner, Inc., consulting engineers of Chicago, is being employed for the project; and its services are to include assisting the township in preparing an application for preparing preliminary and construction plans and supervising and inspecting construction.
The fees for preliminary planning will be in the following amounts:
Up to $100,000, 1.4%; $100,000 to $200,000, 1.33%; $200,000 to $300,000, 1.22%; $300,000 to $400,000, 1.15%; $400,000 to $500,000, 1.10%; $500,000 to $750,000, 1.105%; $750,000 to $1,000,000, 1.1%; and $1,000,000 to $2,000,000, .93%.

For actual construction plans, the fee structure would be up to $200,000, 5.6%; $200,000 to $300,000, 5.3%; $300,000 to $400,000, 4.9%; $400,000 to $500,000, 4.6%; $500,000 to $750,000, 4.4%; $750,000 to $1,000,000, 4.2%; and $1,000,000 to $2,000,000, 3.75%.

Special work, such as field surveys, borings, blue-printing, for final construction, sampling and testing of materials and for spot or factory inspection, is to be paid extra at the rate of payroll costs plus 100%.

Payments hinge on the township receiving a grant from the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency and being successful in the sale of construction bonds.

Lawsuit Filed Yesterday
Supervisor Harry Briggs said the entire project also is dependent on the outcome of a suit filed yesterday in the St. Clair county circuit court by the township.

Todoroff Receives Jaycees' 'Young Man Of Year' Award
(Picture on page 5)
Robert D. Todoroff, director of music at Coolidge Junior High School, received the Granite City Jaycees' award for the Junior Chamber of Commerce's third annual Distinguished Service Award last night.
The award was presented at a "Roses Bowl" banquet at the Rose Bowl restaurant. Guest speaker was Richard Thomas of Sedalia, Mo., a national Jaycee vice-president.
Todoroff was selected for the "Outstanding Young Man of 1962" honors from three final candidates. The other two were Alvin Barnes III, merchandising director for the City Grocery Co., and Jaycee president, and Jerald E. Kent, president of Kent Realty Co. There were about 100 guests at the banquet. Earl Parsons, a past recipient of the award, presented the plaque to Todoroff. Outstanding "S.P.O.K.E." award was presented to Morris

Schools Already Over-Committed On Known Funds

Basic Costs Raised
$240,000 Yearly By Enrollment Increase

(Last of a series)
How much should Granite City teachers be paid?

The answer can only be provided by the public, as represented by the school board which it elects.

No exact answer can be derived from the background data provided in this seven-article series. The word "should" in the opening question broadens the issue far beyond a recital of what money is available which is being paid in similar school systems and how much the latest offer and request would cost.

Moreover, details of the financial deliberations by board members and administrators have not been disclosed to the Press-Record.

Although the ratings and projections to not answer whether current tax rate limits should be raised—nor have school officials or teacher union representatives taken a public stand on this point—it is possible to say that the school district already is over-committed financially.

It is apparent that the rates will be raised, or the line will be held on all spending, or some costs will be trimmed to offset the costs that rise. One of the three results is inevitable, since there is no more leeway in the authorized rates, and the second of the three eventualities can be ruled out by the district's built-in growth factor—a 600 annual enrollment rise. This is adding $240,000 to operating costs each year.

$400,000 Operating Debt
The conclusion that the school system is over-extended is not based on the fact that it had a $400,000 operating debt at the start of the current fiscal year.

GC Delays Action On Housing, Engineer

Elderly Unit Expansion
On Ist Reading; Sewage
Plant Contract Read

Delaying action was taken by Granite City council members Monday night on two major items—expansion of the housing project for the elderly and the $25,000 premium contract for sewage treatment plant engineering.

The resolution for city approval of the Granite City Housing Authority's application for a $20,000 planning grant from the federal government was placed on first reading.

The treatment plant design contract with Chester Engineers of Pittsburgh, Pa., was read, taking 12 minutes, and then Mayor Davis said no action would be taken until next Monday night.

Copies of the contract were to be distributed this week to the aldermen for study. Absent Monday night were two aldermen who favor the extra-fee contract—Eduard Von Schmitt and Casmer Koushik.

To Confer On Housing
The housing for elderly residents was placed on first reading and to give aldermen an opportunity to confer with David Mead, executive director, and become familiar with new federal regulations.

The housing authority is completing a 100-apartment project for the elderly and already has over 300 applications for units.

The $20,000 preliminary planning grant is to be sought from the Public Housing Administration for 100 additional units. The city is to cooperate through the elimination of substandard and inadequate housing.

No city funds would be involved. It was explained, since the low-income housing units are receiving top salaries appear on page 39 in this issue.

Flu Absenteeism Up At Some Schools, Plants

Influenza inoculation programs at the Army Depot and several local industrial plants have proven successful, it was learned today in a survey of the area.
Absenteeism due to illnesses is about average at the depot, where the inoculation program has been in effect since last year.
However, increases have been noted this week at General Steel Industries, A. O. Smith Corp. and American Steel Foundries and in the Granite City school system. The normal 5% rate is up to 10% in Granite City schools, and in Madison early this week as teachers of the staff of 17 at Harris school were absent.

Authorities at St. Elizabeth Hospital said today an upsurge in outpatient treatment for flu victims occurred this week and requests for hospital beds have increased sharply.

Zoning Plan Adopted, University Construction Will Be Started; Regarded As Boost For Economy

Bids Being Sought
First On Library,
Classroom Structure

Southern Illinois University President Delyne W. Morris yesterday authorized issuance of invitations for bids for the first of a group of buildings planned for the initial stage of the new Southwestern Illinois University campus.

Following immediately the enactment of the zoning ordinance, the Madison County Board of Supervisors Wednesday morning, the authorization was issued in accordance with previous action of the SIU board of trustees.

Originally set to begin early last fall, construction had been held up pending enactment of zoning regulations to protect the periphery of the campus, Dr. Morris noted.

Plans and specifications will not be made available to contractors for a library building and a general classroom and office building, he said.

More Bidding Later
Additional buildings scheduled for the initial stage of construction will provide facilities for science, communications and administration. All are to be financed with funds from the universities building bond issue, approved in a statewide referendum in November 1960.

Plans also call for a university center, to be built with borrowed funds on a self-liquidating basis, with student fees and operating income being used to retire the bonded indebtedness.

Last week, the office of Connelly Price announced approval by the Community Planning Administration, Housing and Home Finance Agency, of a two-and-a-quarter-million dollar college housing program.

SIU will supplement the loan with two-and-a-quarter million dollars to be raised by the sale of revenue bonds on the open market.

Cities Need For Speed
"Today's action by SIU was dictated by the necessity of being ready to receive the program as soon as possible," Dr. Morris related. "Not only are we rapidly building up the campus, but the university's facilities at Alton and East St. Louis will be woefully inadequate in the face of increased enrollment," he said.

"But with every week of delay in the zoning ordinance, we face increased building costs. More than two years' planning," President Morris, said.

321 Quad-Cityans On 1962 State Payrolls

Madison county residents on Illinois payrolls in 1962 included 321 Quad-Cityans who received $833,145, according to State Auditor Michael J. Howitt.
Sixty-three persons in the county received salaries of $10,000 or more from the state, Howitt reported.

A complete list of Quad-Cityans who were paid by the state and these throughout the county receiving top salaries appear on page 39 in this issue.

Candidate Sticker On City Worker's Auto Causes Furor

Display of political stickers on his private automobile resulted Monday night in a temporary city employee being ordered to remove them by an alderman—an order that was countermanded Tuesday morning by Mayor Davis.

However, the temporary worker, who was to have worked at least the first three days of the week, was not given work yesterday. He performed the duties of city humane officer on Tuesday with no interruption.

Burnice "Benny" Angle, a former sanitation department employee, told the Press-Record that he was informed Monday evening to "turn in" the city's humane officer truck the next morning.

Order From Nona
He was advised that the order had come from Fifth Ward Alderman Walter Nona, and that it was to be removed.

Construction, Campus Payrolls, Industrial Expansion, Residential Growth, Educational,
Cultural Benefits Cited; 27-19 Favorable Vote

Zoning—expected to lead to an economic, educational and cultural upsurge throughout Madison county—was adopted yesterday in a 27-19 vote by the County Board of Supervisors. University officials immediately afterward issued a call for bids on initial construction at the Southwestern Illinois University campus.

Business, labor and business leaders who had aided the drive for zoning held the two developments as assuring a bright future for the county. They predicted that zoning will accelerate residential growth and industrial development through protection of property values, expand job opportunities, broaden the tax base and encourage economy in providing governmental services through keeping future growth orderly rather than scattered and haphazard.

With the initial $25 million university program being launched and state approval sought for a second $25 million, increased construction payrolls are assured for an extended period and the university's present Illinois Metropolitan Area payroll of $4 1/2 million will rise toward a $10 to $15 million annual level. Related dividends anticipated include university research facilities, which can aid government and industry and help attract new plants, and the presence in local communities of a large number of university staff members.

University officials were among an estimated 200 interested spectators who jammed the County Board meeting room and an adjacent courthouse corridor in Edwardsville Wednesday morning as the long zoning struggle reached a climax. About 40 Quad-Cityans attended.

Before the meeting had ended, the seven-member, non-salaried County Zoning Commission—including Vice-Chairman Howard Kaseberg of Nameoki township and Commissioner Edwin G. Schmitt of Granite City—had been described as "heroes" and "last words" of the county.

The Foster supervisor said that in the counties encountered huge zoning costs in the initial year. Peoria spent $900,000, Madison county's 1963 county containing Deatur spent nearly as much, he asserted. May disputed the figures and said Madison county's 1963 zoning budget is $400,000.

Harris said the ordinance has "hidden gimmicks" in its back pages that unduly restrict farmers and commented, "I'm afraid of zoning. My township and 20 others don't need zoning. State laws will take care of them." He said Sargan and St. Clair counties have rejected zoning.

He described zoning as part of a "package deal" coming to us from the state and federal levels. "All it tied up with urban renewal, under Mr. Weaver's office. I'm not blaming the Democrats. It started a long time before Mr. Kennedy was in office. It's been coming for 20 or 30 years. Now it has come to a head, and we're being asked to swallow it and try to get along with it."

Views Of Spectator, Members
An elderly man in the audience said zoning would be costly and added, "We're fighting Communism and yet running toward it." Board members noted that he was not a supervisor, but Heller let him finish his statement, saying, "He's out of (Continued on page 5, col. 1)

Aid To Latin America Vital,
GC League Told

Importance of public support of the Alliance for Progress was stressed by Mrs. W. E. Pharis, a national board member of the League of Women Voters, in addressing a dinner meeting of the Granite City Provisional League of Women Voters Monday evening at the Snoughborough restaurant. About 40 attended.

Expressing concern over the role Cuba could play in creating unrest in Latin American countries, the speaker said the danger is increased by severe economic problems that are growing worse due to the population explosion and changing technology.

Continued and increased economic and technical assistance is vital, Mrs. Pharis said, warning that "if evolutionary change is ignored, revolutionary change is inevitable."

She had planned to discuss the United Nations but asked to change her topic because of widespread interest in the threat of subversion from Communists in Cuba.

She offered no direct solutions, noting that there was unanimous support for the U.S. in its October 1962 quarantine from the Organization of American States but that there might not be unanimous backing for additional steps.

Mrs. Pharis commented that Castro "lost face" throughout Latin America in being revealed as a Moscow puppet and said U. S. prestige rose sharply.

Many Latin Americans are skeptical of the Alliance for Progress because much of past U. S. aid has helped the well-to-do as much or more than the poor, she related.

Causes Of Poverty
She said extensive aid is needed because of poverty resulting in most cases from conditions beyond the control of the people of their countries. Products no longer attract good prices, although new coffee quotas should help, and families migrating from farms to cities no longer find their numerous children to be economic assets, she explained.

Over 80% of the land is owned by the wealthy and the bulk of the population lives in virtual serfdom, some on $70 a year, Mrs. Pharis said, adding that generalizations are difficult due to wide differences between the various nations. Other factors include foreign ownership and the presence of four major ethnic groups, she related, pointing out that there is little trade or contact between many of the countries in South America.

Calling attention to huge sums used to assist Asia, Europe and Africa, Mrs. Pharis said Latin America must have major multi-lateral aid to raise its tragically low social and economic conditions.

She was introduced by Mrs. J. W. Senoff, president of the Provisional League.

Mrs. Pharis, a resident of St. Louis county and native of Belleville, is one of 17 national directors and also is an executive committee member of the World Affairs Council of Greater St. Louis.

City Bill List Totals
$22,542 For 2 Weeks

Largest item on the $22,542 bill list approved Monday night by Granite City council members was the $12,291 payment to United Disposal Corp., St. Louis, for February garbage and trash collection.

The city paid $4625 to L. Wolf Co. and $370 to Architect Virgil Duganoff for the remodeling project in the police chief's office suite at the city hall; and $138 was paid to Radi-Com Service for repairs to police radios.

Maintenance, parts and fuel for city equipment amounted to $1095, and monthly rent of $30 was paid to Lybarger Material Co. for 20,000 square feet of storage space at Niedringhaus avenue and 19th street, where the city has its salt-cinder pile.

From the tax commissions fund, the city paid $1326 for 22,000 window envelopes, purchased from the post office.

Expense allowances approved were — $100 for CD Director Victor Koenig, $50 for Police Chief Raymond Willard, $50 for Assistant Fire Chief Curtis Donley and $30 each for the following aldermen:

Ford Johnson, Rufus LeMaster, Charles Meyer, Walter Penn, Paul Rutledge, Samuel Shackelford, Casner Skubish, Frank Vesel and Samuel Whitmer.

TWO NEW DIRECTORS elected to the board of the American National Bank—William L. Beatty (left), Granite City attorney, and William Kozyak, Granite City grocer.

Beatty, Kozyak Elected To American Nat'l. Bank Board

Election of two additional members to the American National Bank board of directors was announced this week by the bank president, Harold Karandjeff.

The new directors are William Beatty, attorney, and William Kozyak, Granite City grocer, who increase the size of the board to 10.

Beatty, who is a partner in the local law firm of Moran, Beatty & Hiscott, resides at 115 Riverside drive, with his wife Jeanne, and four children, William 11, Steven, nine, Thomas, six, and Mary, four.

He is a native of Mendota, Ill., and lived in East St. Louis before moving to Granite City upon his graduation from St. Louis University Law School in 1950.

Atty. Beatty, 37, is former attorney for the city of Granite City and is a member of the board of the Tri-City Regional Port Authority.

Kozyak, 35, lives at 3141 Fehling road, with his wife, Marilyn, and three children, John, 14, Robert, nine, and Kathy, two. He has lived in Granite City 33 years and operates Kozyak Market, 2800 Nameoki road. He has been in the retail grocery business for 13 years. Kozyak attended Granite City schools, Southern Illinois University and the University of Illinois. He is a member of the Associated Retailers, Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce and is active in civic work.

Bank President Karandjeff in making the announcement said the growth of the American National Bank warranted the increase in the board. "We decided also to elect some younger civic leaders to the board," he added.

Other board members are H. D. Karandjeff, who is chairman; Harold Karandjeff, the president; A. F. Buente, E. A. Karandjeff, R. A. Wadsworth, P. G. Markely, O. A. Reinhardt and M. F. Wolfe.

Second Meeting On Eagle Park Water Drive Set Sunday

A second public meeting on proposed water service for Eagle Park Acres will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Eagle Park Acres Methodist Church, Allen and Watson streets.

Rev. Carl Moore, church pastor, will be host.

Cleveland Johnson, 201 Watson road, who is heading the drive for water service, said Tuesday he and 14 other Eagle Park Acres residents and property owners have made deposits necessary of all property owners if water service is to be secured. Deposits are being accepted by the First National Bank in Madison, acting trustee of the fund. If enough home owners pay installation fees, the money will be turned over to the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. and installation begun.

Eagle Park Acres residents would like to express their thanks to Mayors Maeras, Lee and Davis and others for the support they have voiced," Johnson said.

"But at the same time, we want residents of Granite City, Madison and Venice to know that we want to do this job ourselves. We are gratified to know that we are not alone, and that our neighbors are behind us."

"We have several men out of work now," he continued, "but those who are working have assured me they are going to make the necessary deposit and do their part in this drive."

Patient Load Decreases At County TB Sanatorium

The use of two new drugs in the treatment of tuberculosis at the Madison County Tuberculosis Sanatorium, plus new surgical techniques, is resulting in earlier discharge of patients, according to Dr. Luis Ventura, hospital superintendent.

At the same time, the outpatient load has increased four fold, due to the same new procedures, Dr. Ventura said.

Following a state-wide trend at TB hospitals, there are 35 empty in-patient beds at the Edwardsville sanatorium, with the average length of stay per pa-

NEW PRESIDENT of the Tri-City Medical Society, Dr. B. B. Berman, who was elected Tuesday evening.

Dr. B. B. Berman New President Of Medical Society

Dr. Benjamin B. Berman, local pediatrician, was elected president of the Tri-City Medical Society during a meeting of the organization Tuesday evening at Tony's restaurant. He succeeds Dr. Irvin Wiesman.

Other officers named were Dr. Robert Hill, vice-president; Dr. Frank Dionea, secretary, and Dr. Felicia Koch, treasurer.

The physicians made plans for the tuberculosis testing program next week in local schools and for the inoculation clinic scheduled from 8 to 10 a.m. Saturday, March 2, at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Guest speakers outlined new income tax legislation pending in Congress. They were Felix L. Callis, Granite City attorney; Charles Noel and Richard L. Garesche, representing an insurance firm, and Henry Ridenhour, a certified public accountant.

Award Contract For Bridge Steel Erection

The American Bridge Division of U. S. Steel Corp., Chicago, has been awarded a $1,870,174 contract for the fabrication and erection of structural steel for two parallel bridges over the Chain of Rocks canal on Interstate 270.

The contract award, announced by the Illinois Division of Highways, was based on bids submitted Jan. 25.

A contract for 4.22 miles of grading of Route 270 was awarded to S. J. Graves & Sons Co., Springfield, on a bid of $1,709,351.

The project includes four ramps at the interchange with Illinois Route 157, 4½ mile of paving on Route 157 and U. S. Bypass 40-66 and a grade separation carrying old Glen Carbon road over Interstate 270, all in and northwest of Glen Carbon.

Parents Of Son
Mr. and Mrs. Willard Passig, 1753 Chestnut street, are announcing the birth of their third son Wednesday at St. Joseph Hospital, St. Louis. The infant weighed eight pounds, three ounces and has been named Timothy Lynn.

Early discharge does not mean end of treatment, Dr. Ventura pointed out. About 18 months of continued out-patient treatment is the minimum, with the patient living at home when conditions are favorable and it has been determined that he is no longer infectious.

The two new drug agents and surgical expertise since 1952 have by now cut the length of the average patient's stay in a hospital in half, and increased by even a larger percentage the work of the out-patient staff, Dr. Ventura added.

Col. Strange To Command U. Of I. Air Force ROTC

The man, a Quad-Citizen, credited with being first University of Illinois student to volunteer for military service in world war II will become commanding officer of the university's Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit at the end of this month.

He is Lt. Col. Russell P. Strange, born in Granite City in 1922 and graduated from high school in Madison in 1940.

The appointment was announced Tuesday by Col. William C. Lindley, Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala., commander of Air Force ROTC activities. On March 1, Col. Strange will succeed Col. Leonard J. Rohrs, who has been at Illinois since 1938 and is retiring.

Col. Strange entered the University of Illinois in 1940 as a student in liberal arts and withdrew in 1941 to enlist in the Army Air Corps. He later attended officer candidate school and was commissioned in 1943.

He has combined service and academic activities, earning three college degrees and teaching in five universities in off-duty time in addition to a service assignment to the faculty of the U. S. Naval Academy.

He returned to the Illinois campus last June as associate professor of air science in the ROTC after having been since 1939 chief of the schools branch, Air Force Headquarters, Washington, D. C.

There he doubled the number of Air Force officer volunteers and scientists and engineers educated each year in American universities.

While serving on the air staff in Washington from 1945 to 1952 and at the Naval Academy from 1952 to 1955 he was enrolled in Nonn had noticed Angle was displaying stickers on his auto for Curtis Blevins, Nonn's opponent in the April 2 city election.

Nonn, when contacted by the Press-Record, denied any knowledge of the incident.

Angle did not return the truck to the city Tuesday morning and performed the regular duties of feeding dogs in the pen at the city garage and answering complaints received at the city hall switchboard.

He had been called out Monday to fill in for Scott Craycraft, the regular humane officer, after Craycraft died Sunday. Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. yesterday.

Hired For Three Days
Angle, 60, who lives at 2906 West 20th street, said he was told by City Inspector Jack Fricker that he would work three or four days while Craycraft was off duty.

Angle last summer operated one of the city insect spray machines through Sept. 15. During his five years on the sanitation department and since the department was disbanded last summer he has been substitute dog catcher.

Angle said Fricker stopped by his home shortly after 7:30 p.m. Monday and asked if he had Blevins' stickers on his auto.

"I told him yes, and that Blevins was my neighbor," Angle said, "and then he told me 'Nonn said we'd have to get rid of you because you have Blevins' stickers on your car.'"

City Inspector Fricker confirmed the visit and the order by Nonn, explaining he had been approached at the city hall by Nonn prior to the start of Monday night's council session.

Fricker said Nonn and several other aldermen were in the police squad room at the time. "Nonn gave me the instructions," Fricker said.

During the conversation between Fricker and Angle at Angle's home later that evening, Angle was instructed to take the truck to Craycraft's apartment at Kirkpatrick Homes.

"I told him (Fricker) that I was going by the Teamsters' union Tuesday morning but before I did anything with the truck," Angle said.

He conferred with Business

MORE ABOUT

Zoning; Construction

order, but he had already started. He's finished now," Granite City Assistant Supervisor William B. Webb Jr. said the main point to be decided was not whether 17 other counties have zoning but "whether this county needs and wants it." Plans for additional talks were dropped. As the roll call began and the first four voted favorably, Collinsville Assistant Supervisor Joseph Canillo rose to vote "no" and stressed that each should vote according to his conscience rather than having to pressure from either side.

As the 27-19 approval was announced there were suggestions that Collinsville Asst. Sup. Louie Frey not be allowed to vote "present." Haller agreed, but added, "There is no way to make him vote." Haller does not vote as president officer, and Wood River Assistant Supervisor William Bryant was reported to be hospitalized. There are 35 board members.

Unexpected Margin
Supervisors said afterward that the eight-vote margin was greater than had appeared probable. Several shifted to the "yes" side this week, they added. May next proposed that the office of county building official—currently held by Charles Erspamer—be appointed also as zoning administrator and secretary to the Zoning Board of Appeals. "No additional compensation will be paid to the building official for discharging these additional responsibilities," he announced.

Some of those who had opposed zoning called for the appointment to be tabled until the March 20 meeting.

Members of the zoning and subdivision control committee replied that "we can't lay it off. Zoning is in effect now." Several fees changed to the favorable side and the motion carried 22-15.

Fees Approved 24-23
The final zoning vote gained only a 24-23 victory, as Frey, Jarvis Supervisor Paul Riebold and two Alton assistant supervisors, William Stobbs and Glen Westerhold, joined the opposition.

The close balloting dealt with establishment of fees of $5 for each application for a zoning permit or an occupancy permit in addition to the county building permit fee, $10 for an appeal from the zoning board to the Board of Appeals, not involving a public hearing; and $25 for matters involving a public hearing of the Board of Appeals. Advertising costs also are to be added to the $25.

May said the fees are necessary for zoning to be self-sustaining rather than being paid for by taxes. Stobbs and Westerhold said they would oppose the fee level until they have more time to study it. Stobbs adding that an individual upheld after an appeal should have his costs refunded.

Other counties were studied and some charge as much as $150. May related, adding that this year's experience with zoning will determine whether the Madison county fees can be lowered below $5, $10 and $25. He said the fees will offset cost of inspecting records to determine the validity of requests for variances and amendments.

Chouteau Supervisor Joseph Troedger challenged the fee plan, noting that Erspamer was to serve without additional salary. May replied that Erspamer would be responsible but "can only stretch himself so far" and will need extra secretarial help.

Prairie For Consultation
With enactment of zoning, duties of the commission appointed by Haller and the County Board came to an end. The group was applauded after May cited long and conscientious work without pay in developing the zoning proposal, conducting hearings and acting on revision requests.

Commissioners present besides Butler, Kaseberg and Schmitt were James Mason of Edwardsville, representing labor; Harry Kluge, Collinsville, government; Jess Wilson, Wood-River, newspaper publisher; and Joseph Wickenhauser, Godfrey, real estate.

Kaseberg represented agriculture, Schmitt utilities and Butler, industry.

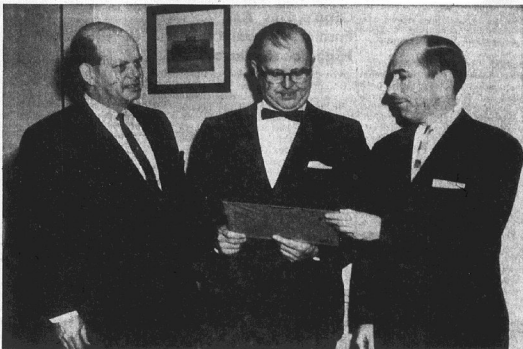

Impact of Highways
In his remarks to the County Board, Butler cited the importance of zoning in advance of rapid growth that could result from creation of new superhighways linking much of the county more closely to the metropolitan area.

Butler said Madison county has the largest assessed valuation among counties south of the Chicago area and the second largest population. He stressed that industries had been no specific stand on zoning, leaving it up to the public and its elected representatives, but added that zoning will accelerate industrial and university employment to more than offset mining and other employment losses.

Recalling five informational hearings and 24 formal township zoning hearings attended by a total of more than 3000 persons, the commission chairman said most were discouraging because of the active efforts of foes and usually poor attendance by supporters. "We might have given up if we had not become more and more convinced of the need for zoning," he related.

Apparently in response to the announcement Monday that a majority of Madison County Farm Bureau members oppose zoning, Butler read the text of the ordinance exempting agricultural land from exemptions other than setback lines to avoid blocking motorists' views at road intersections.

Erroneous Basis For Resentment
Noting that 95% of local taxes are levied by agencies other than the County Board, he said rural residents tend to place the major blame on the county government, which only levies 5% but handles the taxing mechanism. He urged efforts to explain this further and possibly reduce such resentment.

Timing of an Edwardsville Plan Commission proposal to seek zoning jurisdiction in a mile-and-a-half perimeter around the city was criticized this week as possibly harming the prospects of county zoning. The Edwardsville city council declined city plan at this time.

Also this week, May attacked the nucleus of zoning foes as selfishly motivated and using "verbal flag waving" while at the same time "making sly attempts to undermine the public's confidence in their governmental representatives by use of half-truths, quotations out of context, outright lies and misinformation."

Challenge To Government
"They are apparently more guilty of a desire for the overthrow of authority than those whom we recognize as enemies. Let those who listen to such unfounded and bigoted information beware, because of such as this is wrought the insane mobs and unthinking violence that is being stirred up all over the world. Witness the bombing of churches and the resistance to authority in parts of our own country in the last few months."

"It is well known that objection to the location of the SITU campus is the motivating force behind the ring leaders... One cannot help but sympathize with them in their reluctance to give up their homes and land... An individual fight on a reasonable and forceful basis can really be expected in these cases, but no good citizen can be expected to try to undermine and overthrow by hysterical force all government because of his individual loss."

"Both veiled and actual threats of bodily harm have been received by members of the zoning commission and others who are active in this endeavor," May said.

Woman Charged With Robbery Posts Bond
Jaqueline Rose Nicola, 21, of the 1400 block of Washington avenue, was released from the county jail Monday afternoon after posting $2500 property bond. She is accused of taking part in the armed robbery of the Parkview confectionery 2701 Michigan avenue, on Jan. 24.

Charged with her are James Edward Jackson, 18, who occupied a room at 20th street and Washington avenue, and Ray E. Beaton, 16, of the 2200 block of Grand avenue. They are still in the county jail, having failed to post bond.

Police Magistrate Gasparovic set Jackson's bond at $2500 and Beaton's at $500. The younger boy is held on two armed robbery charges.

Beaton, his brother, Claude Clark, 21, of 2225 Monroe street, and Robert Forte, 21, of 3802 Kirkpatrick Homes, are accused of holding up the Golden Krisp Doughnut Shoppe, 2188 Washington avenue, Jan. 22. The older Beaton and Forte also are in jail, not having posted $2500 bonds. Clark is free on $2500 bond.

The holdups netted $278 from the confectionery and $50 from the bakery. The five were arrested Jan. 26 by Granite City police.

The Nicola woman pleaded guilty Jan. 11 to contributing to the delinquency of a minor. She was sentenced to a year in the county jail. The sentence was stayed and she was placed on one-year probation on condition that she be of good behavior.

Preliminary hearings will be scheduled in Granite City at the conclusion of the current criminal trials in the Madison county circuit court.

Sacred Heart and Ragan Lumber Co. won first-round playoff games in classic league basketball competition last night at Prather Junior high school.

The Hearts topped Erie & Annie's 65-52 behind Paul Mosby's 21-point shooting, while Ragan won by forfeit from Plaza Friza, which had only four players present at game time.

First-round playoffs continue tonight with Bowland vs. Schlitz Beer and Madison Bowling Club vs. West Side AC at Coolidge JHS. In a semifinal game next Monday, Sacred Heart will oppose Ragan.

Special Playoffs

Bowland, upset Monday night and tied for first place in the "B" division, won a special top spot playoff game Tuesday evening at Coolidge JHS, downing Sacred Heart 65-52.

Glen Sprankle and John Basarich each scored 19 points for Bowland, which led 32-26 at half-time. Dale Pashea hit 18 markers for the Hearts, who finished second.

AC Upsets Bowland
The "B" division first-place Bowland was upset Monday night at Coolidge JHS when West Side

AC upset leader (until then) Bowland, 71-67, as Dewey Melton led the winners with 32 points. 26 of them gathered in the second half.

After Bowland fell, Sacred Heart clinched a tie by defeating Plaza Friza 71-64 behind Paul Mosby's 31 points. Terry Andrews hit 27 for Plaza, which fell to fourth place.

While the "B" division teams were battling it out—only two games separating the first and last-place clubs—Ragan Lumber Co. sailed to an undefeated season with a 94-84 win over Schlitz Beer in an "A" division contest at Prather JHS.

Both Don Williams and John Dingworth scored 26 points for Schlitz, but Ragan had John Campbell with 25 and Bob Miller and Dave Hrysok with 21 each.

And Madison, Bowling Club solidified its second-place standing by clipping Erie & Annie's in the second game of the night 75-47, as Charles Johannmeier scored 18 points and Rich Patrick and Bob Fink each added 16 for the winners. Clayton Harrison scored 16 for Erie & Annie's.

SIBPA Position

Round Saturday

Bowland Schlitz, which upended league-leader Collinsville Fairmont last week, will seek to continue its winning ways in a Southwestern Illinois BPA Classic league position round Saturday night at Shop City Bowl in East St. Louis, where Schlitz (37-32) will host Adams Gordon Realty (40-29).

Fairmont (49-20) and second-place Alton Bowl Haven Fall staffs (41-28) clash in the 7:30 p.m. program, which could send several changes in the standings.

Other matches show Millstadt Bowl (33-36) paired with host Shop City (32-37) and Madison Bowling Club (18-51) opposing Chokila Bowl (24-33).

GC, With 11 Entries, Defends Team Title Saturday Against Tough Field

If numbers count, Granite City should be successful in the defense of its sectional high school wrestling championship Saturday at the Wood River high school gymnasium.

Champions of their own district tournament, the Warriors will have 11 grapplers competing for spots on a 24-man contingent which will advance from Wood River to the state finals in Champaign on March 1-2.

Winners and second-place finishers from three other district tournaments are to be paired at Wood River in drawings Saturday morning.

Selecology, champion of its own district, is sending 10 competitors. MACArthur, winner at Decatur, has nine in the finals and Carbondale, third place, has eight.

East St. Louis will be represented in eight weight categories. Edwardsville is the runner-up here last Saturday, Quincy took second at Jacksonville, and Granite City was second in its own district and Belleville finished behind East St. Louis at Carbondale.

First-round bouts at Wood River will begin at 1 p.m. Saturday, with finals at 7:30 that night.

Granite City held a final light workout this afternoon and will go into the tournament with the only active team running for sectional entries with weight problems.

Coach Bill Schmitt has hopes of advancing as many as eight boys into the sectional finals, although first-round pairings would seem to be decisive in weight problems.

Schmitt feels that 95-pounder Paul Lapinski could pull it all the way. "There's no one in his class," he's got the inside track, Smitty opined.

Stiff Competition
For the other 10 Warrior entries, it's a different story.

Rich Bledsoe, 103-pound district champion, will probably have to get by Quincy's Parrelli Ellsworth, last year's 95-pound sectional titlist, at Wood River. Bledsoe, however, has defeated Ellsworth once already—in the GCIS invitational tournament.

At 112, it looks like a replay of last year's sectional final between GC's Skip McMillan and Lemuel Phipps of Illinois Brallins. The blind wrestler, who edged McMillan in last year's finals, both boys are undefeated at this point.

Granite City is not represented at 120 pounds, where a three-way dogfight between Dick Allen of Eisenhower, Jack Watkins of Jacksonville and Nelson of Edwardsville looms. The trio finished 1-2-3 in the GCIS holiday tourney.

Watkins was a 65-pound sectional title his freshman year, but could not make it that far in either 1961 or 1962.

Rematch At 127?

If things go as expected in the 127-pound class, GC's Tom Van der Hoff and Dan Morgan of Wood River, the district finalists here, should meet one another again in the title bout at Wood River. A lot will depend on whether or not Vassileff's knee

GCHS Tries To Even Score Against Alton Here Friday In Season's Final SWC Game

There will be little at stake tomorrow night when Alton and Granite City in the final Southwestern Conference basketball game of the season.

The Warriors have fourth place tucked away and Alton is destined to finish fifth, regardless of the outcome, while the other five conference members have completed their schedules.

But two factors make the game of particular importance to the Warriors—and their supporters.

Win Means 7-5 Mark
The Rebels upset Granite City in Alton on Jan. 26 at a time when the Warriors were still in the thick of the title fight.

With the exception of Belleville, no SWC member has slipped Granite City in league meetings this season, and Andy Sullivan & Co. would like to end league play on a winning note, and with a 7-5 record.

Alton players and fans here Friday will be paying particular attention to Granite City's 6-7 center George Moore, who needs 22 big points to edge out Collinsville's Roger Bohnenstiel as the

Olga's, Bills And Farmers Advance In High School Playoffs

Olga's Confectionery upset "B" division winner the Bills last night at the Nannemok school gym in a first round high school basketball league playoff contest, 38-30. Dave Wachter hit 13 points for the winners and Bill Liernan 12 for the Bills.

Other opening night wins were posted by the Farmers, who stepped over Bellefonte 68-27, and by Slim's Place, a 44-36 winner over Tri-Way Village.

First-round games will be completed tonight when Ragan Lumber and St. Bartholomew's meet at the community center in a 7-45 contest. Second round games will be completed tonight.

Double Overlap
The Farmers got 20 points from Perry Tayan and 18 from Steve Hordley in downing the Barbers, who were led by Emmert Dannenberg with 14 markers.

Ernst hit 15 and Tony Bodi 12 for Slim's Place. Gene DeGere had 12 for Tri-Way.

Bellefonte earned a spot in the post-season playoffs Monday night with a double-overlap victory against the Twilight Optimists. Bob Pyle stuffed in the winning basket.

Emmert Dannenberg scored 18 points for the winners and 12 for Canada had 14 for the Optimists.

St. Boniface of Edwardsville and St. Mary's of Madisonville met in the third-round playoff contest. The finals are at 8:15.

St. Elizabeth, which drew a first-round bye, defeated St. Boniface 44-31 last night in the semifinals at Madison JHS, with Bob Markert scoring 15 points.

St. Peter & Paul defeated St. Mary's of Madison 42-28 to become the second finalist. The winners' Mike Mamant poured through 29 points, giving him a total of 57 points in two games.

Small Cave-In Along Abandoned Sewer Line

A small cave-in of the abandoned sewer line at the intersection of St. Clair Avenue at Nannemok road developed Tuesday morning and was quickly barricaded and repaired.

Sand had been pumped into the line and mules when the eight-year-old sewer was replaced last year. A. W. Pearson of the city engineering staff said the sand apparently had settled at the manhole and a hole about eight to 10 inches deep appeared.

The repairs were made under the contract guarantee.

Methodical Cahokia Wins First Midwestern Title

EEEE! Five young sideline observers display varied reactions as floor play comes their way Tuesday night at Cahokia, where the Comanches defeated Madison 61-51 to clinch the Midwestern conference basketball title. Cause of the consternation was a loose ball being chased down by Madison's Gary Skinner (23) and Cahokia's Burton Bruce, who wears No. 33 on his trunk and No. 40 on his jersey.

First Park Baseball Meeting Rescheduled For Next Monday

Next Monday, Feb. 25, has been set as the date for the first meeting of interested managers for prospective team entries in all age groups of the 1963 park district boys' baseball program.

The meeting will be held at the community center at 7:30 p.m. Park District Sup. Harold Brown said the meeting originally had been set for Feb. 26, but has been changed due to the Granite City-Madison basketball game on that date.

Registration and team roster forms, plus tickets which will later be sold by boys to raise funds for the program, will be distributed at the meeting.

Brown said plans call for organized baseball for boys seven through 17 this summer, with as many as 60 teams. Last year, 53 teams participated in the program.

Age divisions will be Atom (7-9), Bantam (9-11), Midget (11-13), Juvenile (13-15) and Junior (15-17).

Parents of boys who have not been placed on teams when rosters are returned may contact Brown at the park office to have their youngsters registered in case of vacancies or the formation of additional teams, Brown said.

32 Points Would Give Moore SWC Scoring Title

Granite City's George Moore will have to bucket 32 points tomorrow night if he is to win Southwestern Conference individual scoring honors for 1962-63.

And the way the big fellow is going, it could happen.

Moore, a 6-7 senior, trails current SWC individual point leader Roger Bohmstedt of Collinsville by 31 points. But Bohmstedt has completed the season, so far as SWC games are concerned, with 252 points to his credit in 12 contests.

Moore has 231 in 11 games. Granite City closes out Southwestern play here Friday against Alton, a team against which Moore scored 38 when the two teams met in Alton earlier this season.

Big George has several other things in his favor. He seems to have reached a peak late in the season, scoring 74 points in his last two games. Teammates have been able to feed him consistently, and he'll have a home court advantage.

That last factor could work to his disadvantage, however. The three games in which Moore has topped 30 points this season have all been played away from home at Alton, Wood River and Quincy.

Defending Champion Madison Falls To Hot-Shooting Comanches, 61-51

Cahokia waited until last to be first. The Comanches sewed up the school's first Midwestern conference basketball championship on their home court Tuesday, the last major conference crown which had remained undecided in the district, by turning back two-time defending champion Madison, 61-51.

Earl Lee's team did it in typical fashion—with a deliberate style and pinpoint accuracy from the field as CHS stretched its lead to 19 straight and dealt Madison its sixth loss in 21 contests. Three of those setbacks have come at the hands of the Comanches.

Last Loss Dec. 11. Ironically, it was Sparta, beaten easily by Madison in its season opening game, which was responsible for the last of two Cahokia losses this season, way back on Dec. 11.

The Comanches had their hands full Tuesday until the closing minutes, when they took advantage of a foul by Cecil Bell, Madison's MVC individual scoring champion who came within one point of tying Don Freeman's all-time conference record of 237 points, scoreless in the first quarter, and still were on the short end of a 13-1 score after eight minutes.

Bell hit a bucket to open second-quarter scoring and give the Trojans a 15-11 advantage and, after Jim Thomas and Burton Bruce had tied the score, Bell hit again for a 17-15 lead, Madison's last advantage.

Big Leary Lenz, a 6-7 dead eye, who would probably have challenged Bell for the scoring crown had he not been out of the club in the conference, then the ball-control Comanches, ripped in eight straight points, most of them at the free throw line, for a 23-19 CHS lead.

Madison never caught up again. Twice the Trojans of Earl McClellan managed to even the score within three points, the first in Clint Robinson's jumper at the end of the third quarter, 37-40, and again on Bell's fifth basket early in the last stanza.

The Comanches met both challenges, and strung five straight points between Bill Schmidt and Bruce in each instance for a 50-42 lead.

Found to shoot quickly and often from far outside as the clock and a semi-stall by Cahokia worked to their disadvantage, the Trojans got two long fouls by Bell at the three-minute mark and then went scoreless from the field the rest of the way.

Easy Baskets
Meanwhile, the Comanches earned their final five free throws, and little Ken McBride cashed in on his fourth solo trip down the floor, a sneaky and effective maneuver on which Lenz grabbed a defensive rebound and fired blindly down-court. McBride was the only player for an easy two-pointer.

And his jump shot at the buzzer gave Cahokia its final 10-point margin.

"I'm convinced that the time and place to beat Cahokia is in the third quarter," McClellan said. "Looking at box scores from their earlier games, it seems they've always had a scoring lull in that period."

Tuesday night was no exception. Madison outscored Cahokia by four and the third period was the only quarter in which the Trojans held a rebounding edge. Lee's boys had 10 more grabs over the four periods.

Cahokia's 59.4% field goal percentage was a ho-hum thing to the coach of the new conference champions. "We've shot above 50% in most of our games this year, and tonight was about average for us on our own court," he said.

Hitting 22 of 37 shots, Cahokia allowed Madison 46 attempts, but Madison's were not always the good percentage attempts, and the Trojans hit only 18 for 39.1%. Both clubs were white hot at the free throw line. Lee coached Herra into 83% and Cahokia 17 of 21 for 81%.

Memories From Herrie
"I'd like to make the trip back to Champaign," Lee said frankly after the game. Six years ago just before he took on the job of building Cahokia's basketball club into a force to be reckoned with, Lee coached Herra into the state finals.

The road ahead looks like a long and tough one for Cahokia, 21-2 record notwithstanding, but a in his current crop Lee has his finest opportunity since 1957.

Cahokia's junior varsity easily outdistanced Madison's javes, made up mostly of freshmen, 62-35, in the preliminary game.

One other conference contest played Tuesday went to Highland over Roxana, 62-51, at Roxana. The 9-0 Comanches face Highland in Cahokia Friday night in the final MVC game of the season. Madison finished with an 8-2 mark.

The Trojans have more than 100 games to go in the final week of the season. They play in Granite City next Tuesday night and conclude the regular campaign at home against Belleville on March 1.

Tuesday's varsity scoring: Madison—Cecil Bell 18, Clint Robinson 14, Paul Lusk 8, Hayes Wright 7, Tal Fisk 2, Gary Skinner 2, Tom Lusk 0, John Summers 0; Cahokia—Leary Lenz 19, Ken McBride 16, Burton Bruce 11, Jim Thomas 10, Bill Schmidt 5.

Score by quarters:
Madison 13 12 13 14—52
Cahokia 11 31 21 21—61

Gas Line Check Will Determine Any Leaks

Illinois Power Co. will make a complete check of the downtown Granite City area to determine if there are any leaks in the underground gas system, it was announced today.

The equipment to be used is a sensing device which can detect as little as one part of methane in a million parts of air. As the unit moves above the surface directly over the buried piping, a moving pen traces a "picture" of the pipe's condition and operating efficiency.

The unit pinpoints gas leaks, determines the size of any leak, however small, and establishes the area where there are no leaks.

C. E. Mathias, local manager, said that this special testing is being done in addition to the regular periodic checks and annual survey.

He said that it will take about three days to complete the survey here. Tests will begin late this week or early next week.

Bids To Be Sought For Five New GC Police Autos

Authorization was given Monday night by Granite City council members for bids to be sought for the purchase of five new patrol autos for the police department.

The present 1962 model sedans have 40,000 to 50,000 miles and are nearly a year old, it was pointed out by Alderman Frank Vesce, chairman of the Police committee. He said the purchase is included in the current city budget.

BLUE, GOLD BANQUET
OF ST. ELIZABETH PACK 13
St. Elizabeth Cub Pack 13 held its blue and gold banquet Sunday afternoon in the school cafeteria. The theme was carried out in the table decorations and favors.

Mrs. Dorothy Etkin's Den Four, presented the flags and led all in giving the pledge of allegiance. Rev. Fr. Lawrence Mattingly gave the invocation and, following the dinner, was the first guest speaker. He remarked that he appreciated scouting for drawing families together through participation in the scout program.

Leonard Robbers, Ed Reinhardt and Pete Carich were recognized as assistant district neighborhood commissioners and scoutmaster, respectively.

Principal speaker was Andy Sullivan, head basketball coach of Granite City high school, who spoke on the importance of good grades for sports and for the individual.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wakefield were presented with gifts by Gene Frey on behalf of the cub scouts, for their work in the past.

Robert Turck sr., cubmaster, congratulated the boys on the large turnout on Communion Sunday during Boy Scout Week. He gave a preliminary report on the camp in which the scouts have been participating.

He mentioned the good behavior of the scouts at pack meetings and announced that pennant awards will be given to the dens with best conduct at these meetings and to the dens with the largest attendance at meetings in the future.

An awards ceremony was held, honoring the den mothers and fathers who have participated in the scout program, and the scouts for specific requirements they have completed.

The program included the first appearance of Carich's Indian dancers and a magic performance by John Koser.

Mrs. Schlarke Erba's group, Den Eight, led all in singing "This Little Cubbing Light" while everyone held small lighted candles.

THE CHAIN OF ROCKS BRIDGE towers in the background as structural steel beams cover the site of the Illinois approach to the new Interstate Route 270 Mississippi River bridge now under construction. Ice in the river has halted work on bridge piers, but operations along the approach and up to the river's edge have continued at a rapid pace. The new four-lane, multi-million dollar bridge is a cooperative venture of the states of Illinois and Missouri and the federal government.

ACTIVITY AT THE SITE is apparent from the amount of equipment on hand. Huge excavations for approach piers have been dug at regular intervals. Construction on the Missouri side is also advancing toward the river, with work on the bridge itself to resume as soon as the river thaws.

HOME NOTES

MRS. ELAINE P. WENDLER
Madison County Home Adviser,

Since the weather forecasts this time of year are very likely to predict rain or snow, boots are the order of the day. And to be fashion-right, come rain or shine, the traditional stadium boots, fabric-lined rubber boots, or compact plastic models will enjoy an occasional "heavy treatment" in your automatic washer.

A warm wash, a warm or cold rinse, and an all purpose detergent are ingredients for good washability of these items. If only a few boots are to be washed add buffer cloths as Turkish towels make a balanced load.

With the variety of surface cooking utensils available to the homemaker today, perhaps a brief review of various utensil characteristics would prove helpful.

Enamel—These utensils are generally lightweight porcelain enamel. They are not recommended for use with your range.

Glass—since glass utensils are subject to breakage with high heat and quick temperature changes, a wire rivet should be placed between the unit and the utensil to minimize this possibility when using an electric range.

Pyroceram—(heat-proof ceramic glass) utensils heat and cool quickly. Generally a somewhat lower temperature than suggested on the cards will provide a more even heating pattern.

Farm Column

By IRUMAN W. MAY
Madison County Farm Adviser

Farmers trying to decide whether to participate in the 1963 Feed Grain program will be interested in a special budget form developed by University of Illinois farm management specialists to help farmers make their decisions. Meetings are being held in the county this month to explain the program.

By using the form, farmers may estimate their income if they participate and if they do not. The form shows estimated fertilizer and other crop costs based on cost-of-production studies conducted by U. of I. agricultural economists.

When a farmer has worked through the form, he can see the difference between his crop income from participating and from not participating. Agricultural economists suggest that he will want to consider the amount of storage space he has, the effect of participation on livestock, soil conservation and fertility, other farm operations, price and production risks and work load, and also the effect on agriculture and society as a whole.

Financial advantages of participating will vary with the yields and prices a farmer expects to receive.

If he expects that his corn will not yield more than 10% above his base yield, he will find some financial benefit in complying. If he expects his corn to yield more than 10% above the base yield, he will probably find it more profitable not to participate.

These estimates are based on a 75-bushel base yield and the same market price for corn as the $1.00 per bushel. Expected corn price also enters into the decision. Suppose a farmer expects his corn to yield about the same as his base of 75 bushels an acre. If the market price rose above $1.00, then the farmer may do about as well by not following the program. But if corn prices drop below $1.10, then he would probably be money ahead to sign up for the 1963 program.

Farmers whose budget shows some advantages of signing up for 20% of their base acreage might consider signing up another 20%. The payment rates are higher on the acreage diverted above 20% of the base, but diversion above the minimum 20% of the base reduces the payment of 18 cents of the normal yield of planted corn.

Only through budgeting can a livestock farmer determine his best decision. For the farmer who can buy corn at harvest, the program may show some definite financial advantages.

Copies of the budget forms are available at the farm adviser's office.

There are some important changes in this year's program and farmers will find it advantageous to figure carefully how it fits into their own operations and plans.

Ons seedling time will soon be here. Oats is not a major farm crop like corn, soybeans and wheat, but some livestock and dairy farmers like to grow a considerable acreage for feed grain, silage or as a nurse crop for clover and alfalfa.

If there's a place on your farm for oats, use a recommended variety this spring. Illinois average yields have nearly doubled in recent years. Some of this increase results from improved fertility and management, but much of it comes from better oat varieties.

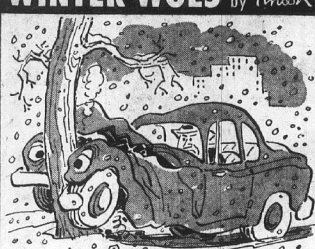

Newton continues to be the most popular variety. Last year it accounted for 41% of the oats planted in Illinois. Clintland 60, Goodfield and Shield last year doubled their percentage of the state acreage while Min-hafer and Clintland both declined.

Newton's popularity is well deserved. It has been the highest yielding variety in southern Illinois and has done well in Madison county.

Goodfield is particularly designed for the livestock producer who has built up his soil fertility with manure. It does a real job where other varieties lodge because of high fertility.

Another "tailor-made" variety, Putnam 6L, fits in well where growers want an early variety in central and southern Illinois.

WINTER WOES by P. W. W.

A citizen, Worthington Barr,
Went to work without chains on his car,
He slid on the snow,
Which cost him some dough,
Much more than the chains would, by far!

PREVENT THOSE WINTER DRIVING WOES

The National Safety Council says: "Always carry a pair of reinforced tire chains. In deep snow and on icy they help you go and stop more safely." Winter tires aid in mild-to-medium snow, but do not replace need for tire chains in severe snow or ice conditions. Don't be a traffic blocker.

Washington Birthday Sales Start Tomorrow

Special prices for a special event—the Associated Retailers Association for the last month of the year—will be offered tomorrow and Saturday by Madison County merchants.

Such as 50 cherry pies to be sold for one cent each. Other special prices include packages of flower seeds for a penny, a gallon of paint for 99 cents, a hotplate grill for $1.03, shoes for 82 cents a pair, diamond rings for $1.63, women's skirts for 22 cents.

Watches, $4.22; men's ox-fords, 94 cents; 10 pounds of sugar for 89 cents; twin bag potato chips, 25 cents; women's fall dresses, $3.88; record albums, 99 cents; mamba drums, 99 cents; a pound of coffee, 45 cents.

Foam pillows, 19 cents; pie cherries, two cans for 29 cents; long sleeve sport shirts, $1.22; men's dress shoes, $2.72; women's cord shoes, 96 cents; women's coats and suits, $2.22; $2.55 camera for $4.99; men's sport coat, $10.00; bed sheets, 97 cents; birthstone rings, 99 cents; five-cell flashlight, 22 cents; framed pictures, 79 cents; men's slacks, 93 cents; men's hats, 96 cents; cough syrup, 79 cents; chenille bedspreads, 92 cents.

Potash used on limed land caused an average four-year increase of 28 bushels of corn, 10 bushels of soybeans, two bushels of wheat, and 3 tons of hay.

The percentage increases are 30, 71, 11, and 18, respectively, for these crops.

Superphosphate was considerably more effective than rock phosphate on wheat. However, on corn, soybeans, and mixed hay the responses were about the same for the two types of phosphate.

A tour to the Southern Illinois Breeding Association plant at Breese last week was attended by 35 Madison county dairymen. Following inspection of the bulls and facilities, a program was held to discuss breeding problems. Dairymen relating experience with the breeding program were Vernon Becker, Moro, who has a herd of Brown Swiss cattle; Eugene Meffert, Highland, a Guernsey breeder; and Harold Klenke, Breese, who has a herd of Holstein cattle.

The annual auction sale of the Madison County Herford Breeders' Association will be held at Highland March 30. Meetings to discuss the 1963 Feed-Grain program will be held at Alhambra on Feb. 26, St. Jacob on Feb. 27 and Edwardsville on Feb. 28. Each meeting starts at 1:30 p.m. All farmers and landowners are invited to attend.

A concentrated session for day camp directors will be held at the council office in Edwardsville Monday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sites, dates and, in most cases, directors for 28 five-day camping sessions on 18 sites have been set. Camping procedures will be outlined at Monday's meeting.

A clinic for present and potential senior troop leaders will be conducted at the council office Wednesday, beginning at 10 a.m. Instructors will be three leaders trained at the Girl Scout National Training Center, Pleasantville, N. Y.

On Saturday, March 9, a journalism and public relations workshop for Girl Scouts of eighth grade and Senior Scout age in the River Bluffs and Greater St. Louis councils will be held.

Tolar Refuses

GC May Take Levee District To Court Over $100,000

Court action against the levee district may be filed by the city of Granite City because of the district's refusal to pay a promised $100,000 toward the $280,000 cost of sewer replacement along Aubrey and St. Clair avenues.

Instructions were given City Atty. John Gitchett at Monday night's council session to seek legal means—either to force the payment or to retaliate through a "non-service" tax objection suit.

Only two aldermen spoke out against the levee district after Mayor Davis read a letter from Levee Board President Lawrence Tolar, who said the refusal resulted from the injunction suit filed last year against the district by 15 Granite Cityans. The group sought to block a $1,300,000 bond issue for projects in St. Clair county.

"Get Nothing For Taxes" Alderman Charles Meyer called for a study to determine if the city could file a tax objection suit.

district to issue general obligation bonds without a referendum.

However, the levee board had authorized the sale of the bonds and proceeded with the sale during the appeal period. Tolar advised the city in the letter that the citizens' action had blocked the district from going ahead with another bond issue in which the $100,000 for Granite City would have been included.

Since Jan. 1 the levee district must call an election to issue bonds. This new state law is being challenged by Nameoki township which seeks levee district assistance to build a proposed sanitary sewer system.

The letter of denial from Tolar brought no further comment from the mayor, the president of the levee district stated.

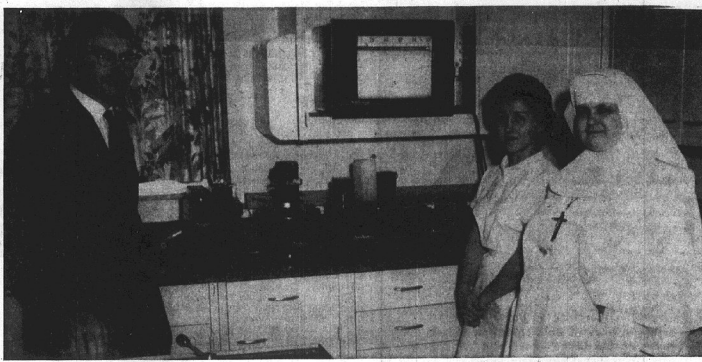

"Just received your letter of Feb. 5 requesting funds in the amount of $100,000 for sewer replacement."

"You were advised that no provision for funds for your project was included in the $1,300,000 bond issue. Had the citizens' group not filed the injunction against this particular bond issue, further bond issue money was contemplated in which there could have been provision for your repair and several other projects."

"The deadline of Dec. 31, 1962, passed and the bond attorneys in Chicago would not pass on any further bonding power without a withdrawal of that suit. To our knowledge, no notice of withdrawal was ever filed or sent to us by your attorneys."

"We are sorry to inform you that no help can be given at this time, but as a suggestion, a meeting between members of the levee board and your city council might work toward the benefit of some help at a future date."

Don't jump at conclusions — you might scare the best ones away.

New Analyzer Will Make 15 Tests Automatically

Automation has come to St. Elizabeth Hospital. A newly-developed "auto-analyzer" is in operation in the laboratory. It is one of the first to be used in hospitals in this vicinity.

The machine automatically makes about 15 different chemical tests including those for blood sugars, urea nitrogens, calcium, total proteins and carbon dioxide.

According to Thomas J. Cooper, M.D., pathologist, the auto-analyzer gives more consistently accurate results and frees technicians routine work for more elaborate tests.

The machine formerly was used almost exclusively in research laboratories but is now being acquired by hospital laboratories, too. St. Elizabeth Hospital is one of the first in the area, outside of the larger

School Dropouts Topic At U. of I. Forum

Likely dropouts from high schools may be spotted early because of lack of participation in school activities and disinterest in classes, according to high school guidance directors who spoke Wednesday at the Fairmont hotel in Collinsville.

They were the main speakers at a meeting of 80 policemen, clergymen, school administrators, parent-teacher leaders and others interested in juvenile law enforcement at a forum sponsored by the University of Illinois.

Several area officials took part in the forum, including Judge Michael Kinney, State's Atty. Dick H. Mudge and Chief Probation Officer James J. Reidelberger, who spoke about laws pertaining to juveniles.

Sheriff Barney Fraundorf was chairman of the afternoon session, Granite City Police Chief R. J. Willard, who was to have been chairman of the morning session, could not attend because of illness.

The Madison police department was represented by Richard Krieschok and Tony Turski of the youth department.

Den Two presented a play, "Machin of Blue and Gold," assisted by the den mother, Mrs. Dorothy Bauer. Rev. George Withers gave a short talk.

Courses made by the cubs were presented to each mother, and decorations and banners were made by each den. Refreshments were prepared and served by Mrs. Rosemary Lewis, Mrs. Mabel Carter, Mrs. Nell Hicks and Mrs. Dorothy Bauer to 104 guests.

Banquet In Observance Of Engineers' Week

A banquet Wednesday night at the Scott Air Base officers' club highlighted the observance of "National Engineers Week" by Madison county professional engineers.

The week-long observance is sponsored nationwide by the National Society of Professional Engineers to bring to public attention the role of engineering in society, and the engineer's function in furthering safety, technical progress and public welfare.

Charles E. Sheppard, president of the Madison county chapter of the Illinois Society of Professional Engineers, said the observance is coordinated with the birthday anniversary of George Washington, since the first President was himself a notable civil and military engineer.

Madison and St. Clair county engineer chapters and the Scott Air Base chapter of the American Society of Military Engineers attended Wednesday's banquet.

Auto-Truck Collision On Madison Avenue
Involved in an accident Monday in the 2600 block of Madison avenue were a panel truck operated by Mona Greenlee, 33, of 1213 West Pontoon road, and an auto driven by Alice Hall, 43, of 2120 Hillside avenue, Madison.

Police said both vehicles were traveling north.

GC Twp. To Borrow $30,000 For Relief; 2nd Tax Warrant

A second tax anticipation warrant for Granite City township relief purposes was approved Monday night by Granite City council members. The new warrant, in the amount of $30,000, is in addition to $35,000 borrowed late last year.

The money again will be obtained from the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank at a rate of 4% interest. Town Atty. George J. Moran said. The interest rate on the $35,000 warrant also is 4%.

Moran was present at Monday night's council session and pointed out relief funds are virtually depleted.

Relief costs during the current fiscal year, which ends Feb. 28, have amounted to $106,321 through January. On Jan. 31 there was a balance of $3890 in the relief fund. The January relief was $183,385 with 566 individuals and the month's costs were $12,724. In the same 11-month period in 1962, relief costs amounted to $93,841.

The township started the current fiscal year with $75,224 in the relief fund, and there was no tax levy for relief purposes last year.

Current Relief, Town Hills
Relief and town fund disbursements approved Monday night totaled $2600, of which $1086 was for relief and $1514 for town purposes.

GC Adds Workmen Compensation To Liability Policy

A contract for a reduced liability insurance rate for the city, coupled with a new coverage of workmen's compensation insurance starting next May 1, was approved with the Herman R. Mueller Agency Monday night by Granite City council members.

The combined policy for a year will cost the city $17,656, compared to the $13,800 which had been paid by the city for a liability policy for a year's coverage involving sidewalk falls. The city was notified late last year the premium was to be increased by $4200.

City Atty. John Gitchoff advised the council the old policy with Midland Co., handled locally by the Lueders agency, was canceled last week when the city failed to pay the extra premium.

Three Proposals
Mueller's figures were the lowest among three proposals submitted by the city. He set the premium at $12,287 for the workmen's compensation and $5369 for the liability insurance for a period of a year, with a liability premium of $1073 for the remainder of the current fiscal year which ends April 30.

A refund of $6700 is due from the canceled policy, Gitchoff said.

The city has not been carrying workmen's compensation insurance, and Mueller's offer to include appointed officials as well as employees for about $100 a year additional is to be accepted by the city with the rate to be fixed.

Mueller also suggested that at the start of the new fiscal year the city might consider expanding the coverage on its liability insurance.

Gitchoff explained the boost in premium on the old policy resulted from the large number of claims against the city due to injuries suffered in falls.

Other proposals were by the Mueller Agency, $20,850 for the liability insurance and $1828 for workmen's compensation; and the Gitchoff Agency, $15,310 for the liability insurance and $11,587 for workmen's compensation insurance.

Gitchoff said the proposals were sought on a combination of the two types of policies in order to secure lower rates.

GC Fire Officials To Attend Convention

Fire Chief Elijah King and Assistant Chief Curtis Donley will attend the 35th annual conference of Fire Department instructors to be held Feb. 26-March 1 at Memphis, Tenn.

Approval of their attendance at the four-day conference and Mayor Davis for two days was granted Monday night by the city council.

Chief King said the assistant chief at the Granite City Army Depot, Lawrence Burns, also is to attend.

Venice Marine Sergeant Begins Okinawa Duty

Sgt. Bobby J. Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Douglas of 1304 Madison avenue, Madison, was among members of the Seventh Marine Regiment who arrived recently on Okinawa for a 13-month tour of duty. The unit, traveling aboard the USS General W. A. Mann, stopped en route to Okinawa at Hawaii and Japan.

New Speed Signs To Be Set Along Pontoon Rd.

New speed limit signs are to be installed by the state highway department along Pontoon road east of Nameoki road. It was reported to the city council Monday night by Alderman Frank Venci.

The new speeds are to be 30 mph from Nameoki road to Vine avenue, 35 mph from Vine avenue east to the city limits and 40 mph outside the city limits.

In the vicinity of the two schools, Nameoki grade school and St. Elizabeth's parochial school, the speeds are to be reduced to 20 mph when children are arriving or leaving.

Morris Gates, 2628 Sheridan avenue, told police Monday night that while his auto was parked near his home the glove compartment was ransacked. The thief took road maps, a pair of pliers and two screwdrivers.

New Legal Rulings On Investment of Funds

Three new rulings on investment of idle funds were announced today by Illinois Atty. General William G. Clark.

Trustees of a municipal pension fund in cities of 200,000 or less population are not authorized to invest pension funds in a savings certificate issued by a bank, whether or not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp., Clark held.

Money in the Universities Building Fund and the Public Welfare Building Fund may be deposited in banks, but a housing authority is not authorized to invest its state grant funds in bank deposit certificates, regardless of whether insured by the FDIC.

The attorney general also ruled that a licensed osteopath or chiropractor may legally take blood for tests under the Marriage Act, have the blood analyzed at a public health laboratory and certify the results of such tests. Such a physician, he said, would not be "practicing medicine in such a manner as to exceed the scope of his license."

VA Pensions Dropped For 8100 Illinois Vets

Pension payments to 8100 Illinois veterans and their dependents have been suspended by the Veterans Administration for failure to report 1962 incomes, it was reported today from the Chicago Veterans Administration office.

Notices went out to 102,000 Illinois veterans last November for data concerning eligibility, and the law requires suspension of payments if the reports are not returned.

It was estimated that over 60% of the pension payments will be reinstated when delinquent returns are received.

Lunch Program Discussed At Maryville PTA

The lunch program was reviewed at a regular meeting of the Maryville school PTA Tuesday evening. Richard Barnett, president, conducted the meeting and led the PTA prayer and pledge of allegiance.

Mrs. Ronald Whittaker, ways and means chairman, reported progress on a program to be held March 2 at the Odd Fellows hall. A pickup service is offered on items may be left at the school.

Mrs. Robert Stone, Mrs. Helen Hayes and Wyatt Watkins were named the nominating committee and asked to submit a slate of officers at the next board meeting.

Barnett read points on increasing the interest in PTA work. He said there are over 150 members in the nation and accomplishments are at all time low. Major achievement listed establishment of the school lunch program.

It was suggested parents could benefit if they would visit their child in school and learn more about the schools and other things they should participate in fund-raising foundations, help find jobs for school drop-outs and attend school board meetings, Barnett said.

He recommended that the organization have less frequent meetings, about three or four a year, and more committee meetings, letting people pick the committees in which they are most interested.

The program was a talk on the school lunch program by Mrs. Florence Bennett, field supervisor of school lunches. She said many parents do not think the lunches are well-balanced and added that the lunch program must be approved by the government and meet its regulations for nutrition - a third of the child's daily needs.

She said the biggest difficulty is trying to please so many children when they are not taught to eat everything - only what they like. The program was made and children voted for hamburgers, corn, green beans, peaches and potatoes.

She said employed personnel require half of the cost for lunch and the position-and-answer period followed.

Six were named to attend the Area Council awards dinner March 1. Mrs. Helen Hayes' fourth grade class received an award for the greatest attendance.

Refreshments were served by the executive board.

Lines in Belleville, Mrs. Jackie Spinks, chairman of the coming story show, informed the members which stores they are to go for clothes they will model, and of the styles wanted for the show. The rehearsal dates will be Feb. 24 and March 3 and 10, with a dress rehearsal to be held March 13. The show will be March 14 at Granite City high school.

A nominating committee will present a slate of new officers at the March board meeting for approval. The election will be held March 18 at the regular meeting.

4 St. Louisans Face Charges; 2 For Theft

Hearings are scheduled for March 13 for four St. Louis residents arrested in Granite City Monday afternoon for alleged shoplifting at two downtown stores.

Charles Turk, 39, and Leroy Howard, 38, were charged with possession of stolen property, disorderly conduct and illegal transportation of liquor. Gloria Williams, 16, and Peggy Jones, 16, were charged with theft. Police investigated a report that the four were acting suspiciously in a downtown clothing store. By the time police arrived they had departed in a red convertible. They were apprehended in the 2200 block of Delmar avenue.

A witness told police he saw a white bag thrown from the auto. It was recovered and found to contain two ladies coats.

The garments were reported stolen from two 19th street clothing stores. They were valued at $35 and $40. Two other similar coats were reported missing from the stores and were not recovered.

The girls were identified by saleswomen at one of the stores as having been in their store that day. The coats were identified.

More than 500 volunteers will take part in a Quad-City wide door-to-door solicitation for Heart Fund contributions starting tomorrow and continuing through Sunday.

Harold Summers, who is Quad-Cities chairman for the annual drive, said the two local American Legion posts and auxiliaries, several societies, and the Toca Boys' Club will participate.

Summers, who also is commander of Post 113, said all areas are to be solicited in the Quad-Cities during the three-day, house-to-house campaign. "We've expanded the program to include every section of the Quad-Cities, and we're still accepting volunteers for the drive," he added.

Dog Patrol For Madison Likely To Be Approved

Madison city officials plan to go ahead with a proposal to add a dog patrol to the police department.

Mayor Stephen Maerhas made preliminary inquiries and expects to have more specific detail in the near future, he told the city council Tuesday night.

Information has been received from the St. Louis police department as to the procuring of such a dog and the training that is required.

Humane Officer Frank Dutko was suggested as a logical choice to take the six months of training with the dog. The mayor said several other policemen have indicated interest.

The mayor pointed out several basic requirements. The police dog must be under 40, and under 35 is recommended. He must have a permanent residence, preferably his own home.

Use To Curtail Burglaries

Dogs must be between one year and 18 months of age to be acceptable for training. Since the dog must live with the handler, it is necessary that the owner's family approve of the plans.

Some difficulties may be expected, the mayor said, in small departments in that the dog patrol is a one-man operation and means the handler may be on the night shift permanently.

The dog would be used at night when burglaries are most likely to occur. The animals are trained to take orders only from one man, however.

Improvement, Basing Ordered

The mayor commended Basing Inspector Steve Kaman for his progress in regard to dilapidated premises. Three condemnation orders he issued were approved by the council.

Two property owners in the 300 block of Grand avenue were given until March 10 to improve their premises. One was ordered to repair and clean up sheds and haul away debris. The other was ordered to raze his shed and haul away the lumber.

The third property was a gutted two-story frame house on Madison avenue near 14th street. The owner was ordered to tear down the structure and fill in the basement excavation.

Buy Fire Hose, Equipment

The purchasing committee requested that purchase orders be issued for several items. The council approved purchase of 25 feet of chain link fence for the township and himself against the East Side Levee & Sanitary District. The suit basically is to test the constitutionality of a 1961 state law requiring the levee district after Dec. 31, 1962, to call a referendum for every general obligation bond issue.

The township is seeking to force the levee district to inaugurate bond issues for the new system, and questions the new state law's change in the operation of the district. In other business, the town board approved the purchase of electronic-type air purifier for the town hall. It is to be bought from Triangle Heating Co., Mitchell on a bid of $487, which includes installation.

Other bids were for exhaust fan systems and did not include electrical work. They were $365 from Westchester Sheet Metal Co., St. Louis, and $522 from Modern Furnace Co., 1229 Madison avenue, Madison.

SALARY TALKS TONIGHT; BOARD, UNION PRESENT
School district and Teacher's Local 734 negotiators will meet 7:30 tonight at the Granite City school board office, with the board and union members in attendance to consider results of the negotiations.

J. Spengler replaced Board Member Dan Linder, who had planned to attend but was unable to do so due to illness in his family.

Unable to land because of turbulence and poor visibility during yesterday's 3:30 p.m. storm, their jet plane circled for 35 minutes and then flew to Kansas City, where it landed. It had been scheduled to go directly from St. Louis to Los Angeles.

While there was no comment on the treatment plan engineering contract Monday night, it indicated following the council session that stronger opposition is developing toward paying the added $25,000 cost above regular engineering fees. Offer Without Added Fee

The local engineering firm of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab, which made preliminary pollution treatment plans and did not include the new system, in Granite City during the past two years, has offered to do the job without any extra fee. The firm designed a treatment plant now under construction at Alton.

The standard fees, which also are to be charged by Chester Engineers plans services which Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab will include in the usual construction fee charges. This work includes preliminary studies and reports, such as reviewing existing reports; making additional surveys, such as gauging, sampling and analyzing dry weather flow of sewage; meetings with local industries, state health department, U. S. Army district engineer officials.

ty and staff members and architects have gone into the master plan and buildings for the campus.

Cyo Obata, principal in charge of design for Holmuth, Obata and Kassabaum, Inc., East St. Louis, has responsibility for designing the campus master plan, as well as the buildings in the first stage of construction.

The master plan will allow for an estimated growth in student enrollment from an initial 5,000 to 18,000 students in the future, Dr. Morris has reported.

SIU Here Six Years
The history of SIU in the Illinois Metropolitan Area dates back six years. SIU residence centers enrolling 1800 students opened in Madison and St. Clair counties in 1937 following approval by the Illinois governor of an appropriation of monies for their establishment.

After the first year of operation in facilities of the former Shurtleff College in Alton and the old East St. Louis high school, the centers experienced a doubling of enrollment and area citizens initiated a project to purchase and present a major campus site to the university.

Selection of Site
Final selection was made by the SIU board of trustees of a 2600-acre campus site southwest of Edwardsville and northeast of the Quad-Cities. Initial purchase of acreage was made with funds contributed by individuals, firms and organizations throughout the entire two-county area.

Roughly 1600 acres of the campus site have been acquired to date, including a 130-acre tract on which the first buildings will be erected.

The totality of the Southwestern campus advantageously provides the university with adequate space necessary for the planning and development of an orderly education program, President Morris pointed out.

Location of administrative and service offices for the new campus in transition facilities at the site was started in late 1959.

Headquarters Staff
Presently operating from offices on the new campus site are Morris, who divides his time between Carbondale and Madison county; Vice-President for Operations Dr. Clarence Stephens; Dean of Instruction William Goring; and directors of student affairs, business affairs, personnel, the university center and the physical plant.

Other university officials with headquarters in former residences on the site direct admissions and registration, the library, general studies, area services, industrial and technical programs, architectural studies, systems and procedures, and auxiliary and service enterprises.

Also operating on the new campus are offices of the legal council, the security officer and the SIU Foundation, a center for data processing and computing.

Secretaries Board Meets; Officers To Be Nominated

A board meeting of the local chapter of the National Secretaries Association was held last night in the conference room of the A. O. Smith Corp. Betty May, president, was in charge. Dorothy Lawrence, Charles Vanovic, Wanda Macdonald, Doris Robinson and Ellen Davidson were named members of a nominating committee to select new officers, and there were reports of all committees. National Secretaries Week to be held April 21-27 was discussed and plans were made for a tea to be held April 24 at the YMCA to which all area secretaries will be invited.

Plans and specifications will be available beginning next Monday from the offices of the assistant university architect, At Springfield, a bill introduced in the House yesterday would permit Southern Illinois University to establish schools of law, medicine, dentistry and pharmacy. SIU officials did not request the bill, but it was passed by a general agreement when the State Board of Education was created by the 1961 legislature.

STILL STATE AUTO PLATES AT COUNTY, CITY LEVEL

I am offering this constructive criticism of the present method of the sale and distribution of state automobile license plates.

It is indeed an outmoded system and should be corrected and made more efficient with the placing of these plates on sale at the various county seats and city halls throughout the state.

Illinois, thereby eliminating the annual rush and scramble to procure these plates.

Other states have such a system which works thus making it easy and practical for owners of automobiles to secure these plates right in their own town without any fuss or bother of long trips.

It would also give an assist to the state police and local police, whose time could be put to more useful purposes than chasing crooks. It just makes good sense, and I would like to hear more about it.

Of course, the rebuttal to these changes will no doubt be, "Well, people have been buying a half of car to procure their plates." True, but people being what they are, it will happen year in and year out—the same old trade of arrests and trials and headaches—which can be eliminated with a little forethought and method on the part of the secretary of state.

DEFEAT ALDERMEN BLOCKING FLUORIDATION

Fellow Granite Citizens, what are we going to do about our fluoridation program? Just how many more years are we going to have to wait for it?

I would like to suggest that you do not vote for any alderman or anyone else who is against it.

Let's get rid of these so-called "representatives of the people"—starting from the top on down. Those men represent their own selfish interests, with no concern whatsoever for the good of our community.

Quite a few of our surrounding communities have adopted this very sensible and efficient method of the sale and distribution of state automobile license plates.

Our children and future generations deserve something more than the annual rush and scramble to procure these plates.

REPLACE FIVE ALDERMEN; AID PARTNER, WHITMER

To the Editor:

Our more than 7000 petition signatures to our city council to restore the sanitation work to Granite City taxpayers were disregarded.

Aldermen Walter Noll and Rufus LeMaster with their fellow council members, where it sits. Only Alderman Don Partley, Paul Rutledge, Sam Whitmer and ex-Alderman George Wieser asked for consideration of our petitions but, unfortunately, were in the minority.

We were told publicly that 7000 petitions could be had to deny God. That I don't believe. We are God-fearing people and the number of churches in our community proves that.

Noll-Walter Noll is trying to run our city the Fidel Castro running Cuba.

They are anxious to give the engineering contract plus $25,000 of our tax money to an out-of-state firm.

When our Press-Record asked for a copy of the city council minutes, the Press-Record, Noll gets mad at the Press-Record. When Alderman Wieser expresses his opinion as an elected official, Noll gets mad at him.

When Alderman Beltrine tries to save some of our dollars, Noll again gets mad. She has given some very good points. Let us all give her en-

Power Of Voter—And Non-Voter—Shown Again

The point may be an obvious one, but it is still worthy of attention: The 81608160 unofficial vote on a 21-cent educational fund tax rate boost in the Belleville high school-junior college district emphasizes the importance of each individual and his ballot.

That each vote and viewpoint counts should be remembered during frustrating times and circumstances when it seems that one person has little chance to influence the course of events or the actions of governmental agencies.

Not many elections and in ties, but a great many—more than is generally realized—are close enough that the outcome could be influenced by the efforts of individual citizens. And virtually every election held could have a different result if those who do not bother to vote would change their ways.

Planning Grant Will Help Meet Vital Regional Objectives

Pursual of some of the southwestern Area Study Commission's objectives underlines the importance of the $39,995 planning grant just announced by the federal government.

Goals include zoning, greater cooperation between municipalities, coordinated highway development, consolidation of school districts where needed, establishment of a coordinated agency for cultural activities, minimum housing standards, abatement of water pollution and establishment and improvement of recreational facilities.

Highways, culture, zoning and recreation are examples of the issues and problems that do not stop at municipal or county boundaries but affect an entire region.

As the second largest population area in Illinois, Madison and St. Clair counties—the Illinois Metropolitan Area—have a large number of people, and the nation as well. The federal funds, and state grants to follow, are an investment that can produce valuable dividends in terms of progress and economic soundness.

Beliefs Of First President Still Meaningful Today

Everyone knows that George Washington—born 231 years ago tomorrow—was the "father of his country" and chopped down a cherry tree as a boy. But this is known to him as an individual than of the more recent national leader. Some of the statements that he authored afford insight into his thinking and character.

It was Washington who urged all to keep alive in their hearts "the little spark of celestial fire, conscience," who noted that "to be prepared for war is one of the most effectual means of preserving peace" and who asserted that "the basis of our political system is the right of the people to make and alter their constitutions of government."

The first president said the U. S. should "observe good faith and justice toward all nations" and "cultivate peace and harmony with all," for the nation that indulges toward nations with "hatred or fondness" is "a slave to its animosity or to its affection, either of which is sufficient to lead it astray from its duty and its interest." He defended the right of every citizen to express his views and to be free of interference from offering their sentiments on a matter "... reason is of no use to us."

Perhaps his greatest contribution was his appeal to ignore hardship, to bear up despite handicaps and to make the best of what he had. He summed up his views with a question that could be repeated today: "When is the time for brave men to exert themselves in the cause of liberty and their country, if this is not?"

courageous so she will not have to fight alone.

Noll (5th Ward), LeMaster (3rd Ward), Frank Vesel (6th Ward), Sam Shackelford (6th Ward) and Estill Von Schmiltz (1st Ward) are running for re-election. Evidently they want to shove more down our throats, so let's show them that, although they are our representatives, they cannot disregard our votes.

RECOLLECTION OF HAPPY SCHOOL DAYS

To the Editor:

I am reading your article on education and classroom size, a lot of pleasant memories were recalled to my mind. This is not a letter concerning today's teachers but merely some nostalgic recollections.

Does anyone reading this article remember the one-room country school taught by one teacher? The classes ran in size from 36 to 40 students; from the first to the eighth grade. One teacher taught all eight grades.

There was not only our teacher, there was our gym instructor, nurse, guardian and a warm friend. She not only arranged our recreation period, she played games with us to the best of her ability.

So, to you do owners, if photo comes home limping, you can be-

Public Will Make Ultimate Decision On School Finances

A series of articles concluding today has reviewed Granite City school finances—a major issue that confronts all voters and taxpayers as well as the school board and school employees.

Purpose has been to illuminate the basic facts to aid citizens in developing informed opinions. Partial or incorrect data is not enough for the public, which is affected by both the cost and quality of education.

We have presented no conclusions about the exact level of salaries that should be paid. We do say that the pay is competitive and that, if the public has underrated the value of teachers, Granite City is not the lone offender. We believe that salaries should be made as attractive as the school board deems proper and financially feasible.

We do not believe an employee group should seek a policy-making role. By its very nature it cannot be objective, because it is directly involved. Other aspects of the school program not so well represented could suffer, and the employees' own interests certainly would suffer from policies that send tax dollars literally down the drain, going to neither salaries nor equipment purchases.

Even if all of the financial factors could be seen and could be viewed objectively, only the administration has the experience and training to evaluate them, and only the seven-member board—legally and from a practical standpoint—can transmit public wishes and needs into official action.

Employees have a right to adequate pay and to make their views known. It is also important that the public be brought fully into the picture, for in the long run it will make the decision.

Ruling Can Expedite Collection Of Delinquent Personal Property Taxes

Delinquent personal property taxes can and should be collected—in fairness to those who pay their taxes fully and promptly. Collection efforts now can be expedited by a new Illinois Supreme Court decision.

The court has ruled that while such tax suits may still be filed in the county court, they also may be instituted in justice of the peace courts if the sums sought are under $1000. In the case of Madison County, this will mean that courts are available instead of one, which should simplify and speed the collection process.

Court logjams in various parts of the state can no longer be a factor, or excuse, for lax enforcement of the personal property tax law. Such taxes are defined by the court ruling as a personal liability that can be collected similarly to any other debt.

Equality Of Educational Opportunity Must Be Basis For Judging Universities' Requests

It is difficult for the average individual to assess decisions by the new Illinois Board of Higher Education, but it is disturbing to note that they seem to be consistently adverse to proposals of the Southern Illinois University board, and in particular, to those related to the new Southwestern Illinois campus.

We think it is vital that the board keep in mind that the Madison-St. Clair counties area has the greatest need for university facilities of any section of the state.

It is not a question of competition between various universities or regions, but a matter of providing educational opportunities comparable to those already a reality elsewhere in Illinois.

If the obvious need cannot be transmitted through the many governmental levels that have been set up, it will be justifiable for Illinois Metropolitan Area residents to take their case directly to the state legislature. Politics, personalities or sectionalism must not be allowed to perpetuate already serious inequities in the state's provision for higher education.

Let Cities Decide How To Utilize Police, Firemen

A proposed state ban on consolidation of police and fire departments ought not to be enacted by Illinois legislators because it would prevent cities from deciding the issue for themselves. Several municipalities already use police and firefighting report satisfaction with the procedure in both the results and the costs.

Just as the state should not force cities to consolidate police and fire departments if they do not wish to, it should not prevent them from doing so.

You can travel thousands of miles without finding better people than those who live next door.

BACK, LEG PAINS MAY BE SCIATICA

If such common winter activities as shoveling snow and putting up a stalled automobile leave you with a sharp, stabbing pain down the back of your leg, you may be suffering from sciatica.

A painful, incapacitating condition stemming from any one of a variety of causes, sciatica usually follows exertion such as pulling or lifting a heavy object.

fortunate accident in her childhood, she has lived with one leg a few inches shorter than the other.

She could not run the bases in a game of baseball, but she was an excellent batter. We students would vie for the honor of running the bases for her when she was at bat.

When winter made outdoor sports impossible, she would play bridge, and she would win. We would sing merry little songs.

At Christmas time we put on Christmas plays. Our teacher

SIDELIGHTS from SPRINGFIELD

By Sen. PAUL SIMON

To adequate housing, "block-busters" have a harder time keeping the people, and all real estate is better protected in the state. That is the real estate part of the argument.

Such a move is important in my mind is the humanitarian argument.

I have a little girl two years old. I know that when she grows up she can rent or buy property anywhere in the state. That is because she happens to have white skin.

A parent who looks at a child who has dark skin knows that in Illinois today perhaps only five per cent of the real estate is available to that child—and at prices on an average of 15 per cent higher than to others.

Interior Housing

Negroes have about ten per cent of the nation's population and account for 85 per cent of the deaths by fire. Much of the cause is inferior housing.

Anyone who has studied the issue admits that something must be done to improve housing.

The proposed legislation takes a step in the right direction. It forbids discrimination in multiple dwelling units, in the rental of single-family units, is not affected, since discrimination there would be almost impossible to prove.

Unanswered Question

The Senate has taken an opposition to this proposal. I frequently answer: "If you have the heart to do it, do it. I hear it." There may be better solutions, but so far I have not had a response to that question.

I frankly doubt that the legislation, sponsored by Rep. Cecil Partee of Chicago, will pass at this time.

But one of these years it will, and when it does both human values and property values in Illinois will be better protected.

Your Governor Reports

by OTTO KERNER

CAMPFIRE FEES WOULD FINANCE PARK BONDS

The General Assembly has been urged by this administration to approve revenue bond legislation to improve and add facilities in our state parks and recreation areas—not only for the benefit of our citizens but as part of our effort to make Illinois more attractive to tourists.

Just as a bond program in Illinois offers a pay-as-you-go opportunity without taxation, revenues for fees for use of camps would be used to pay off the bonds.

From my address to the opening session of the General Assembly, I reiterate that "for many areas of our state, tourism is one of our most hopeful means of stimulating economic growth and employment."

Water Conservation

"An additional value of an expensive water conservation program would be the contribution that a judicious selection of plants and trees can make to the state's water resources."

The importance of camping in these roots will produce pain of the sciatic nerve, may originate from any point along its course.

Nearly 60 per cent of all sciatic nerve pain is due to rupture or "slipped" disc. Discs are the cushion-like vertebrae which allow the spine to bend and curve with the position of the body.

Each disc is composed of a strong, fibrous ring of tissue—something like a small sponge—with softer spongy material.

Should one exert himself, as previously mentioned, this "in-between" may tear, allowing the softer material to ooze out into the spinal cord, pinching the nerve root as it leaves the spinal column. Since the nerve centers in this area form part of the sciatic nerve, the condition called sciatica develops.

So much for the explanation of sciatica. But what if you already have it?

Hot, hard, large doses of vitamin B and pain-relieving medications are the principal temporary treatments.

The permanent treatment, however, is dictated by what the doctor says is the basic cause. For one person, antibiotics may be the solution; for another, surgery.

Once the specific source of the nerve injury is established, there are many procedures available which lead to recovery.

Venice School Initiates Student Detention Period

Faculty members at Venice high school have reverted to an old-fashioned method of dealing with students guilty of classroom misconduct—keeping them "in" after school.

The plan went into effect at the beginning of the current semester. A complete appraisal of its effectiveness is to be made near the end of the present six-week term, March 1.

In a letter to parents, school officials explained the procedure: The plan is to penalize students for misconduct in the classroom, running in the halls, tardiness, truancy, smoking on school property and other misbehavior in school.

Penalties are in the form of time to be spent after school in a detention class. For a violation of the rules the student is penalized a certain number of periods to be worked off at one period per afternoon.

The detention period begins at 3:24 and ends at 4:06 p.m. Students reaching a certain limit in their number of hours are sent home and readmitted only by bringing a parent or guardian. An explanation is given concerning the dismissal.

"This plan is not intended to provide a punishment for those students who behave themselves in the classroom," Principal Lewis Sablin said. "It is intended to provide a more educational atmosphere for deserving students."

The faculty and administration are "deeply concerned with the benefit the children secure by attending school," Sablin said. "We are here to help them learn as much as possible. We encourage the detention plan will encourage an attitude of quiet study."

Mathew Welch Is Named President County Plan Body

Mathew Welch, Collinsville at times, Monday afternoon was unanimously elected president of the Madison County Citizens' Planning Committee at a meeting held in the Holiday Inn at Sunset Hill. He succeeds G. W. Hoelscher, Granite City, who has served for the last few years.

Active in civic affairs in his home community and also in the county, Welch has been a member of the Citizens' Planning Committee since its inception over 15 years ago. He was instrumental in developing a Madison county highway program some years ago, and also was director of the Metropolitan Plan Association, which spans both sides of the river.

Other officers elected for the ensuing year were Walter Hale Jr., Alton-Wood River area realtor and developer, vice-president, and Harlan Dobry, secretary of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, secretary.

Nearly 25 members of the Madison County Citizens' Planning Committee, a volunteer organization, spent the rest of the time discussing the proposed county zoning ordinance, scheduled for action Wednesday by the board of supervisors. The committee was one of the original sponsors of the legislation which has worked actively for its adoption.

Vocational Education Meeting Is Planned

Vocational education at the high school level will be the subject of a dinner meeting next Monday at the East Alton-Wood River high school, to which all interested persons are invited.

Questions concerning such training will be discussed by a panel consisting of school officials from throughout the county, including Miss Marnie Groshong, Venice and Lincoln high school guidance director.

The meeting is to begin with a 6 p.m. dinner, reservations for which may be made with Wallace Stevenson at the East Alton-Wood River high school, Wood River.

The program is sponsored jointly by Madison County School Super. Wilbur R. L. Trimpe, the Madison County Counselors Association and the Illinois Board of Vocational Education.

Operation of Merged Dairies Runs Smoothly
A smooth transition in the merger of Dressel-Young Dairy Co. and Aro Dairy Co., St. Louis, has been completed. It was learned today from Joe Dressel, president of the new and larger company, that the merger is running smoothly.

The local dairy, with the transfer here of Aro's equipment, delivery drivers and office personnel, has doubled its capacity, and all milk operations are based at the dairy located at Niedringhaus avenue and Benton street.

Office space was enlarged for William M. Guthrie, former president of Aro, who now is vice-president of the merged firm. A clerical staff of five girls was moved here from St. Louis along with 16 route drivers. All delivery trucks now leave the local dairy.

Dressel pointed out 71 routes now are based at the dairy. The Dressel firm is the area's largest producer of milk used in the manufacture of ice cream, soft cream and milk shakes. The Aro plant produces butter under various brand names for a number of suppliers and is continuing in this field.

Pfc. Whitt Completes Sgt. Missile Training

Army Pfc. Billy D. Whitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Whitt, 1228 Edwardsville road, Granite City, recently completed six months of specialized training with the Army's Sergeant's Missile Center, Fort Sill, Okla.

Whitt received instruction in the assembly and tactical deployment of the missile, culminated by an actual firing of the solid-fuel Sergeant. He entered the Army in March 1962 and completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. The 18-year-old soldier was employed by the Gem Furniture Co. before entering the Army.

Jehovah's Witnesses Program Set Mar. 8-10
Francis Clanton, presiding minister of the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, and other members of the congregation in the Quad-Cities, will attend a three-day circuit assembly in East St. Louis March 8-10.

A crew of volunteer workers that will eventually number more than 100 persons, caring for about 25 departments, has begun preparation to accommodate an estimated 1100 people in the 17 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses, as well as interested persons from local communities.

The purpose of the assembly, which has as its theme, "Right Kind of Ministers," is a program designed to aid and instruct Christians to be the right kind of ministers, qualifying them to act as witnesses for God and His kingdom, according to Mr. Clanton.

Featured speakers at the meeting will be Harry C. Good and Addison L. Abernathy. The former is a special representative of the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society district supervisor of congregations throughout the mid-west. Abernathy, also a special representative, supervises the activities of the 17 congregations that will be meeting in the East St. Louis high school, State street. All sessions are open to the public.

State Dims GC For $860 Excess Spent on Salt

Granite City was dunned by the state highway department for $860 spent from motor fuel tax funds in 1961 for rock salt. The state advised the city council Monday night that 71 tons of salt had been used on non-arterial streets, and that the city would have to refund the money. The city also was instructed to separate its accounts for arterial and non-arterial streets.

U. Of I. Costs Last Year Amounted To $112,114,630

Today Labor and Learning—the University of Illinois motto—are intertwined because expanding economy and continued intellectual and social achievements depend on expanding educational opportunities and services. Pres. David D. Henry says in an introduction to "Your Money, Your University," an annual report to the public, which has just been issued.

He points out the university's objective—"From its beginnings in 1867 there has been but one overall aim: to provide programs of the highest quality in instruction, investigation, and educational service to meet the needs of the people of Illinois."

How this was done in 1961-62 where the money came from, where it was expended, what was accomplished, the thinking and planning involved in areas from new curricula to a wholly new institution to be created at Congress Circle, Chicago — is readably summarized in the 16-page report.

Among the highlights:

Gross Income $112,114,630

—The university operated on a gross income of $112,114,630 of which the state furnished $61,449,144 from taxes.

—Major areas of expenditures were 39% for instruction, 29% for research, 8% for the Research and Educational Hospitals, 15% for extension and public services, 13% for auxiliary enterprises and student aid.

—Total plant investment at cost, some dating back more than 90 years, is $241,210,154. New buildings, equipment, and other capital improvements during the year totaled $27,854,896.

—Revenue bonds amounting to $4,000,000 were issued for construction of housing. Student Services Building, and completion of the Assembly Hall.

—During the fall semester 29,821 students enrolled on three campuses and 4007 more in extramural classes throughout the state. A total of 44,138 individuals registered for courses at some time during the year.

—Degrees were granted to 5551 students.

—The average student residing in the state paid $230 tuition and fees for two semesters, the out of state student $580. Scholarships, fellowships, and fee exemptions valued at $4,664,124 were received by 12,496 students. The university loaned $708,723 to 3880 students. Loan funds totaling $1,945,016 are provided entirely from private gifts and the National Defense Education Act.

—Academic and professional staff on three campuses and in extension totaled 4701; service staff, including residence halls and other auxiliary activities, 6113.

—About 6% cents of each dollar of state tax funds went to operate the university. This amounted to $3.99 for each person in Illinois.

—Federal government grants and contracts for operations and capital amounted to $23,530,073.

—Directly and through the U. of I. Foundation, the university received $3,532,600 in gifts, grants, bequests, and research contracts from private sources to finance additional services and improvements without added cost in taxes. Endowment funds now total $5,771,845.

Copies of the report are available on request from the Office of the Comptroller, University of Illinois, Urbana.

Four different ways to make going more fun than getting there

You can see why one of America's favorite outdoor sports is driving Chevrolets, with four entirely different kinds of cars to choose from. There's the Jet-smooth Chevrolet, about as luxurious as you can go without going overboard in price; the low-cost Chevy II, a good-looking car that would send any family packing; another family favorite, the sporty Corvair, whose rear-engine traction will make you think that ice and snow are kid stuff; and for pure adventure, America's only sports car, Corvair. The next thing is to take the wheel at your Chevrolet dealer's. If that doesn't have you thinking of places to go, maybe you'd rather just have a ball around town!

Social Security Office Requires Annual Report

Social Security recipients who were 71 years of age or under at any time in 1962 and who earned as much as $1200 in wages or self employment income are required to file an annual report with the Social Security Administration, according to A. R. Brasher, manager of the East St. Louis office.

Brasher said the annual report is required in addition to any tax return filed with the Director of Internal Revenue. The reports allow the government to determine if any additional monthly benefits are due or if through an error in judgment to many monthly benefit checks were paid, he added.

Workers 72 or older at the beginning of 1962 will not have to file such a report, Brasher said. He explained those 72 or older may earn any amount and still receive full Social Security benefits.

He urged any one receiving Social Security benefits who has questions about the annual report to contact the district office in East St. Louis. Reports are due no later than April 15.

CUB SCOUTS TOUR PRESS-RECORD—Dens 2 and 3 of Cub Scout Troop 141, sponsored by Mitchell PTA, toured the newspaper office and plant Monday afternoon. Here they examine a machine used in the making of page plates. Michael Warford of the advertising staff (rear center) conducted the tour.

Mitchell Cub Scouts Tour Press-Record

Eleven boys of Dens 2 and 3 of Cub Scout Troop 141 paid a visit to the Press-Record plant Monday afternoon to learn first hand how a newspaper is produced.

The boys were Thomas Moore, Dale Lockhardt, John Bush, Wayne Dickerson, James Greer, Gary Gelsinger, Dean Vaughn, Mark Hansen, Stephen Ray Smith, Bruce Ernst and Raymond Arthur.

Den Mothers Mrs. Raymond Bush and Mrs. Ray Arthur, accompanied the Cub Scouts, sponsored by the Mitchell PTA. Michael Warford, a member of the Press-Record advertising staff, conducted the tour. The boys saw reporters writing news stories, the microfilm files back issues, and the engraving of photos.

They also saw how type is set and news pages are composed. The boys showed special interest in a machine used for making stereotypes. They then saw Monday's issue roll from the press.

Three New Street Lights To Be Installed In GC

A resolution is to be prepared for the installation of three additional street lights in accordance with a recommendation by Light Committee Chairman Steve Basarich at Monday night's Granite City council session.

The locations will be—2633 Iowa street, the west side of the intersection of Maple and West 20th streets and at the Ohio avenue alley between West 23rd and West 24th streets.

State To Ok $39,237 MFT To Clean Sewers

State approval is pending for a $39,237 expenditure of motor fuel tax funds to clean sewers under arterial streets in the downtown area of Granite City.

The city council was advised Monday night by the State highway department that the bid by National Power Rodding Co., Chicago, was the same as submitted last year and rejected. But the state said it was taking into consideration the condition of the sewers with breaks and loose joints and was allowing a 20% leeway to justify the difficulty anticipated.

The additional 20% added to the city engineer's estimate would put the figure at $38,900, and would be acceptable, the state said.

Contract forms for the agreement between the city and firm have been forwarded to the state for final approval. It was reported to the council by A. W. Pearson of the city engineering staff.

It was pointed out that more people are becoming qualified for Social Security benefits and if benefits are increased any further the Social Security system will not be on a sound financial basis. It also was noted that politics play a part in Social Security since six of the last seven liberalizations of the system have occurred in election years.

Eighteen persons attended, including two guests, Clay Bryant and Byron Kohlbusch. Next week the program will be presented by representatives of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. The group meets weekly at the Elks club rathskeller.

For Next Year's Budget

City To Decide On Buying 2 Tracts To Widen Wabash Ave.

Council members voted eight-to-four Monday night for the plan committee to look into the acquisition of property along Wabash avenue at Pontoon road and at Johnson road. The purpose is to eliminate two jogs on Wabash.

A suit, filed by Alderman Donald Partney and Paul Rutledge, also was considered. The immediate purchase of a 35-foot strip south of Pontoon road since funds were not included in the current budget. The suit never has been scheduled in the city court.

However, Alderman Frank Vesel, who heads the Plan committee, said he was seeking funds to be included in the city's 1963-64 budget for the property acquisition.

He said the committee will decide how much property is needed at the Johnson road end. "We'll decide if just 35 feet is needed or if we should acquire the entire 86 1/2-foot lot at 2037 Johnson road," he told the council. The property has been offered to the city by the Blood, worth agency for $13,500, including a house, he added.

The city has been planning to extend the Wabash avenue parkway boulevard between Pontoon and Johnson roads. It narrows at both intersections at present.

RE Overpass Renewed
With the proposed six-lane riverfront highway, Federal Aid Route 151, soon to become a reality, action was urged by Alderman Walter Nomm for federal assistance to be sought to build an overpass at the Niedringhaus avenue rail crossing.

Mayor Davis was instructed to write to Cong. Melvin Price for assistance and asking him to meet with the council's Street committee and the West Granite aldermen.

Also suggested to be included in the city's new budget was a sign for the main fire station at 23rd street and Madison avenue.

Alderman Charles Meyer pointed out that out-of-towners are not aware that it is a city building.

A comment was made that perhaps it was best if people didn't know what it was; but Mayor Davis replied he was proud of the structure and found that persons in the community were split about 50-50 on opinions of its design and cost.

That's pretty good when you're in politics," he added.

A suggestion was made by Alderman Mrs. Gabrielle Bettine that "City Hall" signs also be painted on the new doorways at the city hall building.

It was indicated the fire station sign may be included in the new budget, and Mrs. Bettine was told no motion was needed for the city hall signs.

Filing Cabinet Dispute
Nomm, a member of the City Hall committee, for not presenting a recommendation on bids received for filing cabinets for the city engineer's office. "We've been waiting two weeks," he said.

Mrs. Bettine pointed out the chairman, Casner Skubish, was not present. Nomm added that valuable maps were stacked around the office and probably would be damaged.

Alderman Samuel Whitmer, also a City Hall committee member, said the maps had been gathering dust for months and he could see no reason for a sudden rush for filing cabinets. "This isn't Mrs. Bettine's fault," Whitmer told Nomm. "The committee has never been called for a meeting."

Mathews, salesman for Mathews Chevrolet Co., was called upon to speak to the council on behalf of trucks purchased by the city for the street department and for which payment was stalled because of a dispute over specifications.

Mathews pointed out the trucks had been delivered and accepted, and he and Alderman Whitmer engaged in an argument which ended suddenly as the session was adjourned.

Mathews later told the Press-Record he was not informed of the cubic inch displacement specification when he telephoned the city hall for the details for bidding. He added that he advised the city that two-speed axles and cast iron wheels were not necessary, as specified. However, those specifications were met after the council considered and reconsidered the suggestion. He added that the firm has never been contacted by Schmitt concerning the city's refusal to pay for the trucks.

Approved was a request by Alderman Donald Partney for legal action to be taken by the city to condemn a building at 2105 Dewey, a fire hazard by the city.

Nomm advised the council that all council meetings, whether caucus or committee sessions, are to be open to the press.

Council Says 'No' To Spot Zoning Lot On Madison Ave.

Referred back to the city council Monday night was a request for the city to reconsider the rejection by the Planning Commission for rezoning a lot in the 2700 block of Madison avenue for commercial purposes.

An office building had been planned on a vacant lot on the east side of the street near 28th street. However, the Planning Commission last year turned down a request by Louis Passhoff for a change to a C-1 commercial zone classification from the present residential zoning.

Several aldermen said they wanted no part of spot zoning in overruling the Planning Commission; although Alderman Mrs. Gabrielle Bettine said the neighborhood had been rezoned by the applicant and no objections were found. Both she and Vesel pointed out there were commercial buildings in the block on both sides of the street, including the sheet metal shop of Alderman Donald Partney, which was erected before the zoning code was adopted.

Vesel recommended the action of referring the renewed request to his committee until such time as all persons living in the vicinity of the lot sign a petition that they have no objections.

Lincoln In Egypt

JOHN W. ALLEN
Southern Illinois University

A large proportion of those who read history think of it as something that happened long ago and far away. To many it is only a scrambled mass of names, dates and places. The incidents and individuals seem strangely uninvolved. For those reasons, if no other, every opportunity to add reality to history should be taken.

Anniversaries, since they come regularly, are excellent occasions. One of these, Lincoln's birthday, this week, has a special appeal in this region.

There are reasons why Illinois may be justified in taking a bit more than average interest in Lincoln. It was to this state that he came as a 21-year-old to know people, to learn the art of politics and to form his early concepts of statesmanship.

It was from Illinois that he went to demonstrate an inherent greatness, developed here, to the nation and world.

As an attorney, Lincoln appeared in many Illinois courts, also at political conventions, rallies and conferences. Numerous of these were in southern Illinois.

It was at Vincennes, Ind., that the Thomas Lincoln caravan crossed the Wabash into Illinois in March 1830. An impressive memorial on the Illinois side, placed there by the DAR, marks the place of crossing. Abraham came driving an ox wagon laden with family household goods and farm equipment.

Sold Nations Enroute
He also carried a $30 stock of pins, needles, thread, scissors, knives and saws, which he successfully peddled to housewives along the way. Thus it was that a southern Illinois county, Lawrence, was the first to welcome Lincoln.

Ten years after entering the state via final Lincoln, 21 years later, once more in southern Illinois, this time as an active political campaigner. He came as a member of the White party. In his 1840 tour of southern Illinois, Lincoln's appearance at many places was as one group of campaigners that generally had several speakers.

Even though he was then an able political speaker, he was not recognized as a national figure. At practically all places, however, existing fragments of records indicate he was the group's most attention compelling member.

Lincoln had been politically active for several months before the trips to Egypt. His work had been principally in central and northern Illinois. After adjournment of the legislature in February 1840, he was free to make a more extended swing.

On August 11 he talked at Belleville, having come there by way of Carlinville and Alton. The Belleville Advocate, of the day, says that the speaker, in his views to those of the invading group, took considerable notice of the speeches, giving Lincoln particular attention. If judgment is based on the reaction it aroused, he must have been the outstanding speaker.

The Belleville meeting marked the opening of the southern Illinois campaign.

Belleville To Waterloo
From Belleville the group moved to Waterloo, where no more than average interest in Lincoln was noted.

A political rally would be held on Aug. 25. The published accounts of the Waterloo meetings mentioned Lincoln as one of the "political missionaries." Two days later the group was at Mt. Vernon where Lincoln was the principal speaker, talking from "a spot on the shady side of the Kirby Hotel." A bronze marker on the west side of the street just north of where State Highway 37 crosses the Dan River, 400 marks the spot. Another two or three days and the group is in Carmel. On Sept. 1 it was in Allison.

Lincoln's next scheduled stop was to be at Shawneetown on Sept. 5. Apparently the journey was made by way of Fairfield in Wayne county. Anyway, that county was partial to Lincoln. It was there, almost 20 years later, that the Republican County Convention became the endorsement of him for presidential candidate.

Lincoln was in Shawneetown Sept. 5 and went from there to Morganfield in his native state of Kentucky to speak. From Shawneetown he turned north toward Springfield, stopping to talk at several places along the way. One of these stops was at Centerville across the Wabash. This was near the site of the half-camp where the Lincoln family had spent their first winter in Indiana and where his mother is buried. Tradition relates that he turned aside to visit her grave.

In later years Lincoln made other political speeches in southern Illinois. The most noted of these were made during the Lincoln-Douglas joint debates in 1858. One of these was at Jonesboro on Sept. 15, the other at Alton on Oct. 15.

Egypt can well lay claim to a significant part in the Lincoln story.
